

CONTENTS

Preface vii

1 THE PROBLEM: issues in person perception 1

Part I Processes involved in perceiving other people 13

2 INFERENCE OR INTUITION?: the mechanisms of person perception 15

3 PUTTING THE PIECES TOGETHER: processing multiple cues 33

Part II Sources of information in perceiving other people 46

4 INFORMATION RECEIVED: inferences from superficial characteristics 47

5 THE REASON WHY: inferences from behaviour 59

6 IMPLICIT PERSONALITY THEORIES: inferences from inferences 80

Part III Accuracy in perceiving other people 99

7 'CRONBACH'S COMPONENTS': the methodological problems of accuracy research 101

8 THE GOOD JUDGE OF OTHERS: accuracy in everyday encounters 119

9 THE INTERVIEW: accuracy in professional encounters 133

Bibliography 146

Name index 170

Subject index 176