
Contents

CHAPTER 1

PLACE ATTACHMENT: A CONCEPTUAL INQUIRY 1

SETHA M. LOW AND IRWIN ALTMAN

Introduction	1
Background	1
The Concept of Place Attachment	3
Some Aspects of Place Attachment	4
Place Attachment as an Integrating Concept	4
Bonding and "Attachment" Features of Place Attachment	4
"Place" Aspects of Place Attachment	5
Social Actors and Place Attachment	6
Attachment May Involve Social Relations	6
Temporal Aspects of Place Attachment	7
Development of Place Attachments	8
Role and Purpose of Place Attachment	10
Reprise	11
References	12

CHAPTER 2

ATTACHMENT TO THE ORDINARY LANDSCAPE 13

ROBERT B. RILEY

Biology, Culture, and Individual	14
The Biology of Evolution as Core of the Landscape Experience	14

Attachment to the Landscape as a Cultural Phenomenon	15
Individual Experience as the Basis of Landscape Attachment	18
Encounter, Time, and Fantasy	19
Social Encounter	19
Time	20
Fantasy	22
Questions and Directions for Future Research	22
Relation between Biological, Cultural, and Individual Frameworks ...	22
Psychological Issues	23
Are There Special Landscapes?	24
Cultural Variability	26
Cultural Change	26
The Role of Nature and Landscape Modification	28
The Changing Nature of Landscape Experience	29
Insiders and Outsiders	30
Cautionary Notes	30
References	32

CHAPTER 3

ATTACHMENT TO POSSESSIONS 37

RUSSELL W. BELK

Attachment, Extended Self, and Possessions	38
Individual Possessions	39
Collective Possessions	42
Toward a Theory of Attachment to Possessions	45
The Singular, the Sacred, the Fetish, and the Magical	45
Displaced Meaning	47
Attachment to Possessions and Human Well-Being	48
Materialism and Attachment	49
Possessions and Identity: Some Positive Effects of Attachment	51
Summary and Future Directions for Research	54
References	55

CHAPTER 4

CHILDHOOD PLACE ATTACHMENTS 63

LOUISE CHAWLA

Introduction	63
Sources of Developing Attachment	66

Place Attachments in Object Relations Theory	69
Remembered Places	73
Reported and Presented Places	77
Directions for Future Research	82
References	84

CHAPTER 5

ENVIRONMENTAL MEMORIES 87

CLARE COOPER MARCUS

Introduction	87
Adult Memories of the Special Places of Childhood	89
Reproducing Special Places of Childhood in the Adult Home	98
Connie: An "English" Garden in a Faraway Land	98
Priscilla: The Dwelling as a Container of Memories	99
Joe: Echoes of a Missouri Childhood	101
Michael and Lou: Preserving Memories of Childhood Places	103
The Current Home as a Contrast to That of Childhood, or as a Replay of Unresolved Childhood Problems	103
Anita: Creating a Beautiful House	104
Katey: Finding Her Own Taste	105
Nancy: Never Feeling at Home	105
Robert: Always Leaving Home	106
Aging and the Memories of Dwellings	107
Future Directions for Research	109
Conclusion	111
References	112

CHAPTER 6

HOME AS A WORKPLACE IN THE LIVES OF WOMEN 113

SHERRY BOLAND AHRENTZEN

Toward a Social Construction of Place Attachment	114
Domestic Ideology and the Myth of the Privatized Home	115
The Meaning of Work and "Women's Work"	118
Women's Work and Home	119
Home Workplaces in African-American Women's Experience	120
Racism and African-American Women's Labor in Northern Cities	120
Homework Activity in the 1910s and 1920s	121
Home as Safe Haven	123
Pride of Place	123

Complex Bonds to Home: Homeworking Women Today	124
Isolation and Entrapment	127
Invasion	129
Vulnerability in the Home	130
Domestic (Mis)Identity	130
The Material Home	132
Conclusions and Future Directions	133
References	134
Appendix	138

CHAPTER 7

ATTACHMENT TO PLACE AND THE REPRESENTATION OF THE LIFE COURSE BY THE ELDERLY 139

ROBERT L. RUBINSTEIN AND
PATRICIA A. PARMELEE

Introduction	139
Three Cases	140
An Integrative Model of Place Attachment in Later Life	143
Life Course, Space, and Experience	145
Space, Place, and Personal Identity	146
Place, Self, and Others: Interdependence	147
Individual Definition, Collective Definition, and Centrality of Place	148
The Individual versus the Collective	148
Neighborhoods	149
The Home and Personal Possessions	151
Personal Possessions (Objects)	153
Institutions	154
Conclusion and Future Directions for Research	159
References	160

CHAPTER 8

SYMBOLIC TIES THAT BIND: PLACE ATTACHMENT IN THE PLAZA 165

SETHA M. LOW

Introduction	165
A Cultural Definition of Place Attachment	165

A Typology of Cultural Place Attachment 166
 Plaza Ethnography: A Case Study of Place Attachment 175
 Methodology 175
 Setting 175
 Place Attachment in the Parque Central 178
 Future Directions for Research and Design 182
 References 184

CHAPTER 9

SPACES THAT TEACH:
 ATTACHMENT TO THE AFRICAN COMPOUND 187

DEBORAH PELLOW

Introduction 187
 The Importance of Place 188
 A Sociological Approach 189
 The Group 191
 The Neighborhood of Adabraka 192
 The Urban Compound 193
 The Traditional Compound Redefined 193
 Adabraka's Compound Living 195
 The Significance of Compound Space 197
 Cues and Medium 198
 Compound Order 202
 Anthropology and Compound Attachment 204
 Of Interest to Environmental Planners 205
 Future Directions of Research—Design and Policy 206
 References 208

CHAPTER 10

TRANSCENDENCE OF PLACE: THE ROLE OF
 LA PLACETA IN VALENCIA'S LAS FALLAS 211

DENISE L. LAWRENCE

Introduction 211
 Theoretical Background 212
 Ritual-Spatial Relations: Nonliterate Folk 213
 Ritual-Spatial Relations: Complex Societies 214
 Approach 215

History of Las Fallas	216
The Nineteenth Century	218
The Twentieth Century	220
Organizational Structure	221
Artists	221
Junta Central Fallera	222
Neighborhood Commissions	223
Ritual Transcendence	226
Conclusion	228
Directions for Future Research	228
References	229

CHAPTER 11

THRESHOLDS TO AN ALTERNATE REALM: MAPPING THE CHASEWORLD IN NEW JERSEY'S PINE BARRENS	231
---	-----

MARY HUFFORD

Theoretical Framework	231
Pine Barrens Foxhunting	233
Delineating the Chaseworld	235
Inscriptions	237
The Spatiotemporal Matrix	242
Boundary Maintenance: Chaseworld Insiders and Outsiders	246
Place as Kommunicative Umwelt	248
Implications and Directions for Future Research	249
References	251

CHAPTER 12

COMMUNITY ATTACHMENT: LOCAL SENTIMENT AND SENSE OF PLACE	253
---	-----

DAVID M. HUMMON

Introduction	253
Community Sentiment: An Interdisciplinary Review	254
Community Satisfaction	254
Community Attachment	256

Contents	xix
Identity, Place, and Community Sentiment	258
Community Sentiment: Summary	260
Community Sentiment and Sense of Place	262
Rootedness and Sentiment	263
Place Alienation and Sentiment	269
Placelessness, Relativity, and Sentiment	271
Researching Community Sentiment: New Directions	274
References	276

CHAPTER 13

DISRUPTIONS IN PLACE ATTACHMENT 279

BARBARA B. BROWN AND DOUGLAS D. PERKINS

A Conceptual Framework	279
Disruptions to Attachment via Changes in Place Processes	285
Burglary as a Disruption to Processes	285
Disruptions to Attachment via Changes in Places	287
Voluntary Relocation	287
Involuntary Relocations	290
Commonalities across Disruptions	296
Future Research Directions and Summary	299
References	301
INDEX	305