
Contents

| | | |
|-------------------------|---|------------|
| Editor's Preface | | vii |
| Chapter 1 | The Monarchic-Aristocratic Model of Organization Traugott A. Lindner | 1 |
| Chapter 2 | Scarcity, Abundance, and Depletion: The Need for Continuing Management Education for Managers Gurth Higgin | 15 |
| Chapter 3 | The Professional Facilitation of Planned Change in Organizations Eric Trist | 37 |
| Chapter 4 | The Scientific Communication Model of Group Dynamics: A New Scientific Approach? Peter Heintel | 49 |
| Chapter 5 | Group Dynamics and Patriarchal Hierarchy Gerhard Schwarz | 89 |
| Chapter 6 | Group Dynamics and Analytic Group Therapy Kurt Buchinger | 103 |
| Chapter 7 | Group Dynamics and Marxism Bernhard F. Pesendorfer | 133 |

| | | |
|-------------------|--|-----|
| Chapter 8 | Conflict Resolution as a Process Gerhard Schwarz | 149 |
| Chapter 9 | The Collective Unconscious and Social Change Max Pagès | 165 |
| Chapter 10 | Some Ethical Considerations in Consultation and So-Called Training Activities Ronald Markillie | 189 |
| Chapter 11 | Group Dynamics in Germany: Cooling the Marks Glamorously and Leaving the Structures Untouched Hubertus Hüppauff | 211 |
| Chapter 12 | Group Dynamics and the Spaniards Ramon Meseguer | 239 |
| Chapter 13 | Sweden—a Rapidly Changing Society: How Group Dynamics and Other Factors Can Interact in Social Change Arne Derefeldt | 265 |
| Chapter 14 | Cross-Cultural Aspects of Organization as Experienced in Expatriate Family Moves Harold Bridger | 283 |
| Chapter 15 | The Third Road Hanne Sjelle Ernst and Peter Holbøll | 307 |
| Chapter 16 | Group-Process Studies as Part of an Organization-Development Program in a Norwegian Oil Company, 1969–1975 Svein M. Kile | 317 |
| Chapter 17 | The Norwegian Trawler Fleet Case Trygve Johnstad | 329 |
| | Index | 345 |
| | About the Editor and Contributors | 353 |