

CONTENTS

Introduction 2

Why We Study Sex Roles 5

Some Basic Assumptions 5

I CULTURE AND BIOLOGY:

WHY ARE MEN MASCULINE AND WOMEN FEMININE? 8

1. Masculine and Feminine: Are Men and Women Really Different? 10

Three Case Histories 11

Marlene 12 Edward 14 Implications 15

Annette 16 Implications 17

Roles and Statuses 18

Sex Roles, Gender Identity, and Masculine/Feminine

Stereotypes 19

The Institutionalization of Sex Roles 20 Learning Sex-Differentiated Behavior 22

Feminine Stereotypes 23 Existence of Sex

Differences 27

The Androgynous Alternative 29

Process-Oriented Versus Role-Oriented

Behavior 30 Characteristics of Process Orientation 31

Summary 36

Exercise: Sex-Role Reversal 37

References 37

2. The Origins of Sex Roles: Is Anatomy Destiny? 40

Historical Origins 43

Hunting and Gathering Societies 44 New Stone

Age 46 The Spread of Christianity 46 The

Industrial Revolution 47 The Victorian

Era 48 Modern Times 49

The Biological Argument	50
Physical Differences in Humans	51
Research on Animals	52
Evidence on Humans	54
The Sociocultural Echo	56
Barry, Bacon, and Child	56
Mead, Ardrey, and Lorenz	57
Lionel Tiger	57
Sigmund Freud	58
Erik Erikson	60
Talcott Parsons	60
The Sociocultural Counterargument	61
Jane Lancaster	62
Margaret Mead's Early Work	63
Whiting and Edwards	63
Jeanne Block	64
Helen Hacker	64
One Final Argument	65
Biology Versus Culture: A Summation?	66
Power and Mythology	68
Summary	72
Exercise: Your Inner Self and the "Opposite Sex"	73
References	73

II ANDROGYNY AND SEX ROLES:

THE VISION 80

3. The Vision of Androgyny: The Individual in Process	82
Process Orientation and Androgyny	85
Characteristics of Process-Oriented Individuals	87
Angela	89
Implications	92
Other Personal Accounts	92
Research on Androgyny	94
Bem's Studies on Androgyny	95
Studies on Masculinity and Femininity	96
Creativity and Sex Roles	98
The Underside of Androgyny	100
Interpersonal Implications	102
Summary	105
Exercise: Instrumental and Expressive Subpersonalities	106
References	106
4. Person to Person: The Intimate Relationship	110
Characteristics of a Process-Oriented Relationship	111
What Is Love?	113
Love in a Process-Oriented Relationship	114
Androgyny and Love Relationships	116

The Egalitarian Marriage: Myth or Fact?	118
Garland's Sample of One	118
Poloma's Findings on Primary Control and Husbands	119
Rapoport and Rapoport: Dual-Career Marriages in Britain	119
Bailyn on "Coordinate" Marriages in Britain	121
Intimate Relationships: Emphasis on the Individual	121
Ramey's "Primary Relationships"	122
Conflicting Results of Ramey and the Rapoports	124
Love and Sex Before Marriage	126
Two Case Histories	127
Eileen and Derek	127
Implications	130
Beth and Glen	132
Implications	134
Summary	134
Exercise: Being Alone and Being With Others	135
References	136

III ANDROGYNY AND SEX ROLES: THE REALITY 140

5. The Search for Stability: Standardizing the Individual	142
Characteristics of Role-Oriented Individuals	143
Sex-Role Stereotypes	147
Impact of Sex-Role Stereotypes	149
Differences in Intellectual Functioning	151
Differences in Emotional Expression	153
"I Am Playing Masculine and You Are Playing Feminine"	157
The Masculine Case	158
Mark	159
Implications	160
The Feminine Case	161
Louise	162
Gloria	163
Peggy	165
Implications	166
Summary	167
Exercise: Enlarging the Area of Freedom	168
References	169

6. Masculine and Feminine Scripts: The Locus of Power and Security 172

Women's Acceptance of Dependent Behavior	173
Mary Beth	174
Angela	175
Sylvia	175
Elise	176
The Sex-Role Trap	177

The Power of Men and the Incentive to Achieve	178
Leonard	180
Implications	181
Relationships of Single People	182
The Singles Bar: The Search for Male Approval	182
The Price of Male Approval	183
Single Men Relating to Women	184
Single Men Versus Single Women	185
Same-Sex Friendships	186
Friendships Between Women	187
Friendships Between Men	188
Platonic Opposite-Sex Relationships	190
Group Settings	192
Men's and Women's Expectations of Each Other	194
× Confident Women and Anxious Men?	195
Summary	196
Exercise A: Sharing Ourselves	197
Exercise B: The Roles We Play	198
References	199

7. Marriage and Romantic Love: Sources of Marital Dissatisfaction 202

Marriage: The Sought-After Institution	203
Characteristics of a Role-Oriented Relationship	208
Love in a Role-Oriented Relationship	209
Love and Power	209
Romantic Love: Ecstasy and Despair	210
Traditional Roles Within a Marriage	211
To Be a Wife	212
Man as Breadwinner and Financial Provider	216
Examples of Role-Oriented Marriages	219
Dorothy	219
Alex	220
Implications	222
Maintaining the Form and Losing the Process	222
Companionship, Communication, and Empathy	223
Sexual Relationships	224
Diminishing Returns in the Role-Oriented Marriage	225
Expectations of Young Men and Women	227
Summary	229
Exercise: Our Ideal Man and Ideal Woman	229
References	230

8. Social Class and Role Expectations: Marriage and External Forms 234

Social Classes and Ethnic Groups	236
The Upper Class	236
The Upper-Middle

Class	237	The Lower-Middle Class	239	The Working Class	240	The Lower Class	242	The Black Culture	243	Other Ethnic Groups	245	The Influence of Social Class and Ethnic Group	246
The Influence of Social Class on Marriage	246
Case Histories	250
Luis	250	Tony	251	Christine	253	Andrea	255
Summary	257
Exercise: Sex Roles, Social Class, and Family Belief Systems	259
References	259

9. Androgynous Individuals in a Masculine/Feminine World: Barriers to Being Fully Human 262

The Economic Sphere and Pretensions of Power	265
Women and Work	267
Lorraine	269	Sylvia	271
Discrimination Against Women	272
Discrimination in the Business World	275	The Ivory Tower: For Males Only?	277	Evaluation of the Work of Women	280	Perceptions of Discrimination	280
Career Women: Where Do They Come From and What Are They Like?	282
Is a Career Really Good for Anybody?	287
Women's Expectations	289
Power for Self-Enhancement or Self Destruction	290
Janine	292	Implications	293
Enemies and Friends Within: Changing Ourselves	293
Summary	295
Exercise: Choosing Our Life Directions	296
References	297

IV THE PAST: SPRINGBOARD TO FREEDOM OR RATIONALE FOR RESIGNATION? 304

10. Socialization of Boys and Girls: Examining Our Personal Heritage 306

Role-Oriented Families: The Separation of Power and Love	308
The Negative Effects of Power	310	Other Characteristics of Role-Oriented Families	311	Pressures Toward Role Orientation	313

Theories of Development	315
The Process-Oriented Alternative: The Balance of Power and Love	319
The Training of Men and Women	322
Differential Treatment of Boys and Girls	323
What It Means To Be a Man	327
What It Means To Be a Woman	330
Are Boys and Girls Really Different?	331
Cognitive Differences and Personality	334
The Need To Achieve	336
Socializing Men and Women Versus Socializing Human Beings	337
Summary	339
Exercise: Reliving Our Childhood	340
References	341

11. Ever-Present Mothers and Peripheral Fathers: Is the Traditional Pattern Changing? 346

Learning by What We Do	350
The Impact of Full-Time Mothering	352
Children of the Working Mother	353
Research on Infants and Children	355
Differential Effects on Boys and Girls	357
Adolescents and Youths: Effects of Maternal Employment	358
Cynthia	360
Implications	362
The Father Problem	362
Father Availability	363
Father Absence	365
Fathers as Equal or Primary Caretakers	367
Growing Up with Father	369
Evelyn	370
John	371
Implications	373
Summary	373
Exercise: Attitudes Toward Fathers and Mothers	374
References	375

Epilogue: Toward Androgyny—Integrating the Vision and the Reality 382

The Sex-Role Cycle: Learning and Transmitting Sex Roles	383
Societal Factors Affecting the Sex-Role Cycle	385
Pressures Toward Change	386
Technological Pressures	386
Pressures by Recent Social Movements	387
Intellectual Pressures	388
The Process of Individual Change	390
Resolution of Conflict: Becoming Ourselves	393

GLOSSARY 395

NAME INDEX 401

SUBJECT INDEX 407