

Contents

Preface	v
1. Introduction	1
Paul B. Paulus
Part 1. Social Influence Processes in Groups
2. Leadership Theory and Research: A Systems-Process Integration	9
Martin M. Chemers
Brief History	9
Current Research and Theory	11
Integrative Systems/Process Model	28
3. Minority Influence	41
Serge Moscovici and Gabriel Mugny
Two Social Influence Models	41
Impact of Behavioral Style	46
Why is Minority Consistency Effective?	51
Minority Image	54
Consistency and Uniformity Pressures	57
Conclusion	61
4. Group Discussion and Judgment	65
Martin F. Kaplan and Charles E. Miller
Introduction	65
Group Discussion and Individual Judgment	66
Normative and Informational Influence	68

Mechanism for Informational Influence	74
Group Decision Rules	78
Summary	89
 Part 2. Group Influence on Task Performance and Informational Processing
5. Group Influence on Individual Task Performance	97
Paul B. Paulus
Social Facilitation	98
Group Size and Crowding	100
Social Loafing	102
Integrative Model	103
Evaluation of the Cognitive-Motivational Model	109
Conclusions	116
 6. The Impact of Personal Equity Processes on Performance in a Group Setting	 121
John J. Seta and Catherine E. Seta
Personal Equity Theory	122
Task Performance: Willingness and Capability	124
Social Facilitation: Audience and Coaction Paradigms	128
Processing Strategies	134
A Comparison Between an Analysis of Personal Equity Processes and Other Theoretical Perspectives	137
Conclusion	143
 7. Social Context Effects in Persuasion: The Effects of Multiple Sources and Multiple Targets	 149
Stephen G. Harkins and Richard E. Petty
Division of Impact	151
Multiplication of Impact	163
General Discussion	169
 Part 3. Exchange Processes in Groups
 8. Coalition Formation: A Social Psychological Approach	 179
S. S. Komorita and David A. Kravitz
Classification of Coalition Situations	180
Theories of Coalition Formation	183
General Evaluation of Theories	191
Summary and Conclusions	199

9. The Influence of Communication on Bargaining	205
Charles G. McClintock, Frank J. Stech, and Linda J. Keil
Bargaining	206
Communication	210
Communication Dilemmas	211
Bargaining Research Paradigms	214
Communication and Bargaining	218
Conclusion	228
10. Procedural Justice, Participation, and the Fair Process Effect in Groups and Organizations	235
Jerald Greenberg and Robert G. Folger
Participation in Organizational Contexts	236
Participation in the Form of Choice	239
Participation in the Form of Voice	241
Limiting Conditions of the Fair Process Effect	246
Conclusion	251
Part 4. Interaction in Groups
11. Loneliness, Sex-Role Orientation, and Group Life: A Social Needs Perspective	259
Phillip Shaver and Duane Buhrmester
Current Conceptions of Loneliness	260
Social Provisions of Group Life	262
Parallels Between the Provision Dimensions and Masculine and Feminine Social Styles	269
Group Phenomena Viewed from a Social Needs Perspective	273
Summary, Conclusions, and Future Directions	280
12. The Interpersonal Orientations of Disclosure	289
Richard L. Archer and Walter B. Earle
The Self-Disclosure Tradition	290
Traditional Role of Communication in Groups	292
Relationships: Where the Self Joins the Group	294
The Uses of Disclosure	298
Orienting Disclosure to Group Processes	306
13. Influences of Past Relationships on Subsequent Ones	315
William Ickes
Toman's "Family Constellation" Theory	316
A Test of Competing Predictions	321

Theoretical Implications	324
Speculations and Directions for Future Research	326
Conclusions	333
Author Index	339
Subject Index	352