

Contents

List of tables	vii
Appendix	vii
Contributors	ix
Foreword	xiii
Preface	xv
Introduction	xvii
Angela Creese and Constant Leung
1 Communicative Language Teaching and EAL: Principles and Interpretations	1
Constant Leung
2 Mainstream Participatory Approaches: From Slipstream to Mainstream	15
Frank Monaghan
3 Beyond Key Words	33
Manny Vazquez
4 Connecting Communication, Curriculum and Second Language Literacy Development: Meeting the Needs of ‘Low Literacy’ EAL/ESL Learners	44
Alan Williams
5 Teaching Approaches in Two-Teacher Classrooms	58
Angela Creese
6 Content-Language Integrated Approaches for Teachers of EAL Learners: Examples of Reciprocal Teaching	75
Candace Harper with Kimberly Cook and Carol K. James
7 Sociocultural Approaches to Language Teaching and Learning	97
Margaret R. Hawkins

8	Bilingual Approaches	108
	Ester J. de Jong and Rebecca Freeman Field
	Concluding Remarks	123
	Constant Leung and Angela Creese
	Author Index	127
	Subject Index	129

List of tables

2.1	Teacher roles	18
2.2	Categories and sub-categories of support	19
2.3	Key history genres	27
8.1	Additive bilingual and multilingual program models	113

Appendix

Appendix 6.1	Differences in Palincsar and Brown's RT model (1984) and the RT models adapted by Carla and Miki	95
--------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----