CONTENTS

PART I THE NATURE AND SCOPE OF MARKETING RESEARCH

CHAPTER 1 A Decision-Making Perspective on Marketing Intelligence, 1

- Learning Objectives, 1
- An Overview of Business Intelligence, 1
- Introduction to Marketing Intelligence, 3
- Marketing Research, 6
- Role of Marketing Research in Managerial Decision Making, 11
- Factors That Influence Marketing Research Decisions, 19
- Use of Marketing Research, 20
- Ethics in Marketing Research, 21
- The Respondent's Ethics and Rights, 25
- International Marketing Research, 25
- Summary, 27
- Questions and Problems, 27
- End Notes, 28
- *Case 1-1: Preteen Market—The Right Place to Be In for Cell Phone Providers?
- *Case 1-2: Best Buy on a Segmentation Spree
- *Case 1-3: Ethical Dilemmas in Marketing Research

CHAPTER 2 Marketing Research in Practice, 30

- Learning Objectives, 30
- Information System, Decision Support Systems, and Marketing Research, 31
- Marketing Decision Support Systems, 34
- Suppliers of Information, 38
- Criteria for Selecting External Suppliers, 43
- The International Marketing Research Industry, 43
- Career Opportunities in Marketing Research, 44
- Summary, 45

- Questions and Problems, 45
- End Notes, 46
- Appendix: Marketing Research Jobs, 46

CHAPTER 3 The Marketing Research Process, 47

- Learning Objectives, 47
- Overview of the Marketing Research Process, 47
- The Preliminary Stages of the Marketing Research Process, 49
- Planning a New HMO, 59
- The International Marketing Research Process, 62
- Summary, 66
- Questions and Problems, 66
- End Notes, 67
- Appendix: The Value of Research Information Using Bayesian Decision Theory, 67
- *Case 3-1: A VideOcart Test for Bestway Stores
- *Case 3-2: Sperry/MacLennan Architects and Planners
- *Case 3-3: Philip Morris Enters Turkey

CHAPTER 4 Research Design and Implementation, 70

- Learning Objectives, 70
- Research Approach, 72
- Research Tactics and Implementation, 79
- Budgeting and Scheduling the Research Project, 81
- Research Proposal, 83
- Designing International Marketing Research, 85
- Issues in International Research Design, 87
- Summary, 89
- Questions and Problems, 89

End Notes, 90

Appendix: Errors in Research Design, 90

*Case 4-1: Reynolds Tobacco's Slide-Box
Cigarettes

*Case 4-2: California Foods Corporation

Case for Part I

*Case I-1: Clover Valley Dairy Company

PART II DATA COLLECTION

SECTION A: SECONDARY AND EXPLORATORY RESEARCH

CHAPTER 5 Secondary Sources of Marketing Data, 92

Learning Objectives, 92

Secondary Data, 93

Uses of Secondary Data, 93

Benefits of Secondary Data, 94

Limitations of Secondary Data, 94

Internal Sources of Secondary Data, 95

External Sources of Secondary Data, 97

Census Data, 104

North American Industry Classification
System, 106

Appraising Secondary Sources, 107

Applications of Secondary Data, 108

Sources of Secondary Data for International
Marketing Research, 112

Problems Associated with Secondary Data in International Research, 112

Applications of Secondary Data in International Research, 114

Summary, 114

Questions and Problems, 114

End Notes, 115

*Case 5-1: Barkley Foods

*Case 5-2: Dell in Latin America?

*Case 5-3: Eddie Bauer: Strategize with Secondary
Marketing Data

CHAPTER 6 Standardized Sources of Marketing Data, 116

Learning Objectives, 116

Retail Store Audits, 117

Consumer Purchase Panels, 118

Scanner Services and Single-Source
Systems, 121

Media-Related Standardized
Sources, 129

Applications of Standardized Sources of Data, 131

Summary, 133

Questions and Problems, 133

End Notes, 134

*Case 6-1: Promotion of Rocket Soups

*Case 6-2: Kerry Gold Products, Ltd.

*Case 6-3: Paradise Foods

CHAPTER 7 Marketing Research on the Internet, 136

Learning Objectives, 136

Current Trends in Web Usage, 136

WWW Information for Marketing
Decisions, 138

The Internet and Marketing Research Today, 144

The Internet and Marketing Research
Developments, 152

Issues and Concerns, 155

Summary, 158

Questions and Problems, 158

End Notes, 159

*Case 7-1: Caring Children's Hospital

CHAPTER 8 Information Collection: Qualitative and Observational Methods, 161

Learning Objectives, 161

Need for Qualitative Research, 162

Qualitative Research Methods, 162

Observational Methods, 183

Recent Applications of Qualitative and
Observational Methods, 190

Summary, 192

Questions and Problems, 192

End Notes, 193

Appendix: Myths of Qualitative Research: It's Conventional, But Is It Wisdom?, 195

*Case 8-1: Mountain Bell Telephone Company

*Case 8-2: U.S. Department of Energy (A)

*Case 8-3: Acura

*Case 8-4: Exploratory Research on the Lleyton Hewitt
National Visa Card

*Case 8-5: Hamilton Beach Conducts Primary Research in Mexico and Europe

SECTION B: DESCRIPTIVE RESEARCH

CHAPTER 9 Information from Respondents: Issues in Data Collection, 198

- Learning Objectives, 198
- Information from Surveys, 198
- Sources of Survey Error, 199
- Methods of Data Collection, 204
- Factors Affecting the Choice of a Survey Method, 206
- Ethical Issues in Data Collection, 209
- Summary, 212
- Questions and Problems, 212
- End Notes, 213
- *Case 9-1: Essex Markets (A)
- *Case 9-2: More Ethical Dilemmas in Marketing Research

CHAPTER 10 Information from Respondents: Survey Methods, 214

- Learning Objectives, 214
- Collecting Data, 214
- Surveys in the International Context, 240
- Summary, 243
- Questions and Problems, 244
- End Notes, 245
- *Case 10-1: Project DATA: An Urban Transportation Study
- *Case 10-2: Roland Development Corp.

CHAPTER 11 Attitude Measurement, 247

- Learning Objectives, 247
- What Are Attitudes?, 248
- The Concept of Measurement and Scaling, 249
- Types of Attitude Rating Scales, 252
- General Guidelines for Developing a Multiple-Item Scale, 264
- Interpreting Attitude Scales, 265
- Choosing an Attitudinal Scale, 267
- Accuracy of Attitude Measurements, 268
- Scales in Cross-National Research, 271
- Summary, 272
- Questions and Problems, 272
- End Notes, 274
- *Case 11-1: Wine Horizons
- *Case 11-2: National Kitchens

CHAPTER 12 Designing the Questionnaire, 275

- Learning Objectives, 275
- Planning What to Measure, 276

- Formatting the Question, 277
- Question Wording: A Problem of Communication, 283
- Sequence and Layout Decisions, 289
- Questionnaire Design for International Research, 295
- Summary, 297
- Questions and Problems, 298
- End Notes, 301
- *Case 12-1: Essex Markets (B)
- *Case 12-2: Smith's Clothing (A)
- *Case 12-3: Compact Lemon
- *Case 12-4: Wave Mp3 Player

SECTION C: CAUSAL RESEARCH

CHAPTER 13 Experimentation, 303

- Learning Objectives, 303
- Descriptive versus Experimental Research, 304
- What Constitutes Causality?, 306
- Issues in Experimental Research, 307
- Types of Experimental Designs, 309
- Laboratory and Field Experiments, 324
- Threats to Experimental Validity, 324
- Guidelines for Conducting Experimental Research, 326
- Limitations of Experiments, 328
- Summary, 331
- Questions and Problems, 331
- End Notes, 332
- *Case 13-1: Evaluating Experimental Designs
- *Case 13-2: Barrie Food Corporation

SECTION D: SAMPLING

CHAPTER 14 Sampling Fundamentals, 334

- Learning Objectives, 334
- Sample or Census, 334
- Sampling Process, 336
- Probability Sampling, 342
- Nonprobability Sampling, 349
- Shopping Center Sampling, 354
- Sampling in the International Context, 356
- Summary, 358
- Questions and Problems, 359
- End Notes, 360
- *Case 14-1: Exercises in Sample Design
- *Case 14-2: Talbot Razor Products Company

CHAPTER 15 Sample Size and Statistical Theory, 362

- Learning Objectives, 362

Determining the Sample Size: Ad Hoc Methods, 362
Population Characteristics/Parameters, 364
Sample Characteristics/Statistics, 365
Sample Reliability, 366
Interval Estimation, 368
Sample Size Question, 369
Proportions, 371
Coefficient of Variation, 372
Stratified Sampling, 374

Multistage Design, 375
Sequential Sampling, 376
Summary, 376
Questions and Problems, 376
End Notes, 378

Case for Part II

*Case II-1: Currency Concepts International

PART III DATA ANALYSIS

CHAPTER 16 Fundamentals of Data Analysis, 380

Learning Objectives, 380
Preparing the Data for Analysis, 381
Strategy for Data Analysis, 385
Cross-Tabulations, 389
Factors Influencing the Choice of Statistical Technique, 391
An Overview of Statistical Techniques, 393
Summary, 398
Questions and Problems, 398
End Notes, 399
Appendix, 399

CHAPTER 17 Hypothesis Testing: Basic Concepts and Tests of Associations, 401

Learning Objectives, 401
The Logic of Hypothesis Testing, 402
Steps in Hypothesis Testing, 403
Basic Concepts of Hypothesis Testing, 404
Cross-Tabulation and Chi-Square, 407
Summary, 416
Questions and Problems, 417
End Notes, 417

*Case 17-1: Medical Systems Associates: Measuring Patient Satisfaction

CHAPTER 18 Hypothesis Testing: Means and Proportions, 418

Learning Objectives, 418
Commonly Used Hypothesis Tests in Marketing Research, 419
The Probability-Values (p Values) Approach to Hypothesis Testing, 427
Effect of Sample Size and Interpretation of Test Results, 428
Relationship between Confidence Interval and Hypothesis Testing, 428
Analysis of Variance (ANOVA), 430
Summary, 438
Questions and Problems, 438
End Notes, 439
*Case 18-1: American Conservatory Theater
*Case 18-2: Apple Appliance Stores

Cases for Part III

*Case III-1: The Vancouver Symphony Orchestra
*Case III-2: Popular Pizzas

PART IV SPECIAL TOPICS IN DATA ANALYSIS

CHAPTER 19 Correlation Analysis and Regression Analysis, 440

Learning Objectives, 440
Correlation Analysis, 441
Regression Analysis, 445
Summary, 465

Questions and Problems, 466
End Notes, 468
*Case 19-1: The Seafood Grotto
*Case 19-2: Ajax Advertising Agency
*Case 19-3: Election Research, Inc.

CHAPTER 20 Discriminant and Canonical Analysis, 469

Learning Objectives, 469
Discriminant Analysis, 469
Multiple Discriminant Analysis, 478
Summary of Discriminant Analysis, 482
Canonical Correlation Analysis, 482
Summary of Canonical Correlation Analysis, 486
Questions and Problems, 486
End Notes, 488
*Case 20-1: Southwest Utility

CHAPTER 21 Factor and Cluster Analysis, 489

Learning Objectives, 489
Factor Analysis, 490
Summary of Factor Analysis, 501
Cluster Analysis, 502
Summary of Cluster Analysis, 512
Questions and Problems, 513
End Notes, 513
*Case 21-1: Store Image Study
*Case 21-2: Behavioral Research

CHAPTER 22 Multidimensional Scaling and Conjoint Analysis, 515

Learning Objectives, 515

Multidimensional Scaling, 515
Attribute-Based Approaches, 516
Summary of MDS, 525
Conjoint Analysis, 526
Summary of Conjoint Analysis, 533
Questions and Problems, 534
End Notes, 535
*Case 22-1: Nester's Foods
*Case 22-2: Pepsi-Cola
*Case 22-3: The Electric Truck Case
*Case 22-4: Fargo Instruments

CHAPTER 23 Presenting the Results, 537

Learning Objectives, 537
Guidelines for Successful Presentations, 537
Written Presentation, 544
Oral Presentation, 547
Relationship with the Client, 551
Summary, 552
Questions and Problems, 552
End Notes, 552

Cases for Part IV

*Case IV-1: Smith's Clothing (B)
*Case IV-2: Newfood

PART V APPLICATIONS OF MARKETING INTELLIGENCE

CHAPTER 24 Traditional Applications: Product, Price, Distribution, and Promotion, 553

Learning Objectives, 553
New-Product Research, 554
Pricing Research, 565
Distribution Research, 567
Promotion Research, 574
Summary, 585
Questions and Problems, 586
End Notes, 587
*Case 24-1: Brown Microwave
*Case 24-2: National Chemical Corporation
*Case 24-3: U.S. Department of Energy (B)
*Case 24-4: Hokey Pokey is Born in India

CHAPTER 25 Contemporary Applications: Competitive Advantage, Brand Equity, Customer Satisfaction, and Total Quality Management, 589

Learning Objectives, 589
Competitive Advantage, 589
Brand Equity, 592
Customer Satisfaction, 598
Total Quality Management, 604
Contemporary Applications of Marketing Intelligence, 612
Summary, 614
Questions and Problems, 615
End Notes, 615

CHAPTER 26 Emerging Applications:
Database Marketing, E-Commerce,
Mobile Marketing, Social Marketing,
Experiential Marketing, Relationship
Marketing, and Customer Intelligence, 617

Learning Objectives, 617

Database Marketing, 618

E-Commerce, 629

Mobile Marketing, 633

Social Marketing, 634

Experiential Marketing, 637

Relationship Marketing, 637

Recent Trends in Relationship Marketing, 639

Customer Intelligence, 644

Summary, 648

Questions and Problems, 649

End Notes, 649

Appendix: Forecasting, 650

End Notes for Appendix, 652

Appendix: Tables, 653

A-1. Standard Normal, Cumulative Probability in Right-Hand Tail for Positive Values of z ; Areas Are Formed by Symmetry, 653

A-2. χ^2 Critical Points, 654

A-3. F Critical Points, 656

A-4. t Cut-off Points for the Student's t -Distribution, 661
