

Contents

Acknowledgments.....	v
List of Tables.....	ix
List of Figures.....	ix
Abbreviations and Symbols.....	xi

Chapter One: Grammaticalization theory

1 Introduction.....	1
2 The history of grammaticalisation.....	3
2.1 From syntax to morphology – Givón.....	4
2.2 Cologne project.....	5
2.2.1 Lehmann’s analysis.....	6
2.2.2 Heine and Reh’s analysis.....	10
2.3 Hopper’s proposals.....	11
2.4 Traugott’s pragmatic approach.....	18
3 Recent studies on grammaticalisation.....	20
4 The term grammaticalisation.....	22
5 Motivation for and mechanisms of grammaticalisation.....	25
5.1 Morphosyntactic changes.....	28
5.2 Pragmatic-semantic changes.....	29
5.2.1 Semantic content – a gain or loss?.....	29
5.2.2 Metaphorisation – metonymisation vs. analogy – reanalysis.....	31
5.3 Phonetic changes.....	34
5.4 Gradualness.....	36
6 Unidirectionality hypothesis and its criticism.....	37
7 Clines and paths of grammatical change.....	41
8 Criticism of grammaticalisation.....	44

Chapter Two: Semanticisation of HAVE

1 Chapter outline.....	49
2 Earliest phonological development of HAVE.....	49
3 Desemanticisation of HAVE.....	52
3.1 Is there bread? It hasn’t. Some cross-linguistic evidence.....	64
3.2 The rise of the HAD BETTER structure.....	69
4 Summary and conclusion.....	78

Chapter Three: Along the possession-to-obligation cline
1 Introduction .....	79
2 Synchronic characteristics of HAVE TO .....	81
3 Traditional accounts of the development of HAVE TO .....	86
4 The rise of HAVE TO viewed as a syntactically driven change .....	91
5 Grammaticalisation of HAVE TO revised .....	99
5.1 The auxiliary status of HAVE TO in Old English .....	101
5.2 Latin influence .....	114
5.3 Word order of HAVE + to -infinitive .....	118
5.4 Pragmatic-semantic development of HAVE TO .....	128
5.5 Negation of HAVE TO .....	131
5.6 Discussion .....	134
6 (HAVE) GOT TO .....	138
7 Summary .....	143
Chapter Four: Possessive Perfect
4.1 Chapter outline .....	145
4.2 Traditional views on the rise of possessive perfect .....	145
4.3 The rise of 'have'-perfect in English .....	149
4.3.1 Stages of the development .....	149
4.3.2 AGAN + past participle .....	155
4.3.3 BEON vs. HABBAN + past participle .....	156
4.4 Functions and status of HABBAN + PPP in Old English .....	164
4.4.1 Some differences between OE and PDE perfect .....	164
4.4.2 The level of grammaticalisation of HABBAN + PPP structure .....	167
4.4.3 Similarities between Old and Present-Day English perfect .....	174
4.4.4 Carey's (1994), (1995) analyses .....	178
4.4.5 Perfect infinitive in Old English .....	184
4.5 Causative HAVE .....	188
4.6 Summary .....	204
Conclusions .....	207
Notes .....	211
Bibliography .....	233
Index of languages .....	261
Index of scholars .....	263
Index of subjects .....	267