

Contents

List of figures	page xiv
List of tables	xvi
Preface	xvii
Acknowledgments	xix
1 Introduction: What is language?	1
Key terms	1
Overview	1
Introduction	1
Box 1.1 The power of language	2
Language and communication	2
Exercise 1.1	3
Language and identity	3
Exercise 1.2	4
How we define language	5
Language signs	5
Types of signs	6
Exercise 1.3	8
Fluency in language	8
Word systems	9
Sentence structures	9
Sound systems	9
Context	10
Exercise 1.4	10
Language innateness	11
Box 1.2 The story of Genie	13
Studying language	13
Exercise 1.5	14
Box 1.3 Guidelines for linguistic analysis	15
Chapter summary	15
Critical Thinking exercises	15
Hot Topic: Fitting language to a language community	16
Translations	17
Learn more about it	18
The study of language	18
Language acquisition	18

2	Defining American English	19
	Key terms	19
	Overview	19
	Introduction	19
	Box 2.1 American English?	20
	What is American English?	21
	The history of American English	22
	Exercise 2.1	23
	Exercise 2.2	25
	American English and American identity	26
	Exercise 2.3	28
	Standard American English	28
	Language and power	31
	Exercise 2.4	32
	American English as a global language	33
	Exercise 2.5	35
	Exercise 2.6	36
	Chapter summary	36
	Critical Thinking exercises	37
	Hot Topic: Politically correct language and the Sapir–Whorf hypothesis	38
	Learn more about it	39
	American English	39
	Language and power	40
	English as a global language	40
3	American English morphology	41
	Key terms	41
	Overview	41
	Introduction	42
	Word structure of contemporary American English	43
	Morphology	43
	Definition of morphemes	43
	Classification of morphemes	44
	Affixes: Inflectional and derivational morphemes	45
	Box 3.1 Inflectional morphemes	46
	Box 3.2 Derivational morphemes	47
	Exercise 3.1	48
	Word histories	48
	Exercise 3.2	49
	Borrowings	49
	Advantages of loanwords	51
	Exercise 3.3	52
	Coined words	53

Compounds	53
Initialisms	53
Acronyms	54
Clipped words	54
Back formation	55
Eponymy	55
Blended words	55
Exercise 3.4	56
Chapter summary	56
Critical Thinking exercises	56
Hot Topic: The language of advertising	57
Learn more about it	58
Morphology	58
Etymology	59
4 The historical roots of American English	60
Key terms	60
Overview	60
Introduction	60
The history of English	62
Geographical and social isolation	62
Exercise 4.1	63
Proto-Indo-European	63
Cognates	64
Box 4.1 Cognates from the Indo-European family	65
Exercise 4.2	65
Language privileging	65
Exercise 4.3	67
Old English	67
Exercise 4.4	68
Prolonged language contact	69
Latin	69
Old Norse	69
Box 4.2 Similarities between Old Norse and Old English	71
Norman French	72
Box 4.3 Privileging French	73
Box 4.4 The rise of English as the national language	74
Morphological change: leveling	75
Box 4.5 The loss of inflectional endings in English	75
A national language: Early Modern English	75
Exercise 4.5	77
Chapter summary	77
Critical Thinking exercises	77
Hot Topic: Gender-neutral pronouns	78

Learn more about it	79
A developing language: Old English	79
A national language: Early Modern English	80
5 American English grammar and syntax	81
Key terms	81
Overview	81
Introduction	81
Exercise 5.1	82
Box 5.1 Conflict over American English grammar	83
Definitions of grammar	84
Exercise 5.2	84
Prescriptive grammars	85
The eighteenth century and the prescriptive approach	86
British English	86
American English	86
The prescriptivist approach today	87
Exercise 5.3	88
Exercise 5.4	89
Descriptive grammars	89
Syntax	91
Exercise 5.5	92
Exercise 5.6	94
Phrase structure rules	94
Exercise 5.7	95
Generative grammar	96
Chapter summary	97
Critical Thinking exercises	98
Hot Topic: Is Instant Messaging ruining our kids?	99
Learn more about it	99
Historical perspectives on the study of grammar	99
Contemporary perspectives on the study of grammar	100
6 American English sounds and spelling	101
Key terms	101
Overview	101
Introduction	102
The phonology of American English	103
Transcribing phonemes	105
Exercise 6.1	107
Classifying phonemes	107
Places and manners of articulation	108
Consonants	108
Box 6.1 Voicing contrasts	108

Vowels	110
Exercise 6.2	110
Combining phonemes	111
Changing rules	111
Exercise 6.3	112
The spelling system of American English	113
Early changes in English spelling	113
Box 6.2 English spelling changes after the Norman Conquest	114
The standardization of written English	114
William Caxton and the printing press	114
Exercise 6.4	116
American English spelling	117
Exercise 6.5	118
Chapter summary	118
Critical Thinking exercises	119
Hot Topic: How valid is a dictionary?	120
Learn more about it	121
American English phonology	121
American English orthography	121
7 Meaning and usage in American English	123
Key terms	123
Overview	123
Introduction	124
Word meanings	124
Box 7.1 Contrasting lexemes and words	125
Semantic fields	126
Semantic relationships	127
Exercise 7.1	127
Exercise 7.2	128
Denotation and connotation	129
Exercise 7.3	131
Lexical change	131
Exercise 7.4	133
Language in context: pragmatics	133
Speech acts	134
Nonliteral speech	135
Box 7.2 American English metaphors	137
Exercise 7.5	138
Discourse analysis – conversations	139
Chapter summary	140
Critical Thinking exercises	141
Hot Topic: The rhetoric of American speeches	142

Guided questions	143
Learn more about it	144
Understanding semantics	144
Negotiating meaning	144
Pragmatics	144
Discourse analysis	144
8 Variations in American English	145
Key terms	145
Overview	145
Introduction	145
Exercise 8.1	147
Studying dialects	147
Exercise 8.2	148
Regional dialects	149
Exercise 8.3	150
Social language variation	151
Ethnic variation	151
Dialect focus: Chicano English	152
Exercise 8.4	154
Dialect focus: African American English	154
Gender variation	157
Box 8.1 Controversy over the Oakland School
Board resolution	158
Differences in speech of males and females	159
Explanations for gender speech variation	159
Exercise 8.5	161
Chapter summary	161
Critical Thinking exercises	161
Hot Topic: Change your life! Get a new accent today!	162
Learn more about it	163
Studying dialects	163
Dialect focus: Chicano English	163
Dialect focus: African American English	164
Gender and language	164
9 Language, community, and American policy	165
Key terms	165
Overview	165
Introduction	165
Individuals and their communities	167
Exercise 9.1	168
Language and prestige	169
Exercise 9.2	170
Slang and jargon	170

Exercise 9.3	173
Exercise 9.4	173
American language policies	174
The privileging of American English	174
Nineteenth-century policies toward minority languages	176
Native Americans	176
Exercise 9.5	178
Spanish and Hawai'ian	178
Twentieth-century policies toward minority languages	180
Box 9.1 Efforts to save the Hawai'ian language	184
English and the complexities of a national language	184
Exercise 9.6	187
Chapter summary	187
Critical Thinking exercises	187
Hot Topic: Taking a position on endangered languages	188
Learn more about it	189
America's first languages	189
Language policy	190
English and the complexities of a national language	190
10 Conclusion: Language policy and English language learners	191
Key terms	191
Overview	191
Introduction	191
Exercise 10.1	192
The second language acquisition process	192
Variables affecting L2 learning	194
Exercise 10.2	195
L2 instruction	195
Exercise 10.3	196
Approaches to L2 instruction	196
History of bilingual education	197
Exercise 10.4	198
Bilingual education: Focus on California	198
Chapter summary	201
Critical Thinking exercises	202
Hot Topic: Teaching SAE to native English speakers	203
Learn more about it	204
The L2 acquisition process	204
L2 instruction	204
Bilingual education: Focus on California	204
Glossary	206
References	214
Index	217

Figures

1.1	A language community at work	page 4
1.2	Do you use pop or soda or . . . ?	6
1.3	An iconic sign meaning wheelchair accessible	7
1.4	Knowing a language isn't the same as having knowledge of a language	9
1.5	Approximate timeline for first language acquisition	11
1.6	Noam Chomsky	12
1.7	Arbitrary sign for American Sign Language used here	14
2.1	Do you prefer dippy eggs, sunny-side-up eggs, or eggs over easy?	21
2.2	British colonization carried English around the world	23
2.3	The Old Mission Church in Zuni, New Mexico, built in 1776	24
2.4	Noah Webster's Dissertations on the English Language shaped attitudes toward American English	27
2.5	John Adams	29
2.6	Buckingham Palace – site of the Queen's English	30
2.7	The teacher controls language within the classroom	31
2.8	English has become a dominant language in countries around the world	33
3.1	Giving a Bruce Lee	42
3.2	Example of a word jumble	45
3.3	The difference between derivational and inflectional suffixes	47
3.4	An example of two popular loanwords	50
4.1	Geographical barriers create isolation from other speakers	63
4.2	The Germanic language invades England	66
4.3	The four distinct varieties of Old English	68
4.4	Alfred the Great	70
4.5	The Danelaw	71
4.6	Preserving the past	72
5.1	Which answer is correct?	83
5.2	Henry VIII	85
5.3	Jonathan Swift	87
5.4	Did you study grammar in school?	89
5.5	Noah Webster	90

5.6	Tree diagrams graphically represent the structure of a sentence	94
6.1	Spelling reformers protesting at a spelling bee	102
6.2	Opening page of “The Knight’s Tale” from Caxton’s 1483 printing of Geoffrey Chaucer’s The Canterbury Tales	115
6.3	Noah Webster	117
7.1	A semantic field shares a common feature	126
7.2	Hound has narrowed in meaning from a dog to a hunting dog	132
7.3	Some words acquire new, unrelated meanings over time	133
7.4	“Wall Street suffered another loss today”	136
7.5	“May you always have smooth sailing in your life”	137
8.1	Example of mapping a dialect	148
8.2	American regional dialects today	149
8.3	Ethnic diversity in the United States	151
8.4	Regions of Spanish settlement in colonial North America	153
8.5	Theories about the development of AAE	156
9.1	Representative comments about Nuestro Himno posted on the blog About.com: Latin Music	166
9.2	One type of language community	168
9.3	Slang belongs to a particular time and place	171
9.4	Can you imagine Huckleberry Finn speaking standard American English?	172
9.5	The Continental Congress never voted on an official language of the United States	175
9.6	Jim Thorpe, a famous athlete of the early twentieth century, was a graduate of the Carlisle Indian Industrial School	177
9.7	Henry Obookiah	179
9.8	The Immigrant: Is He an Acquisition or a Detriment? – A political cartoon from 1903	180
9.9	The Lumbee tribe of North Carolina has struggled to maintain its own linguistic identity	183
10.1	L2 learners have typically moved beyond the critical period for acquiring language	193
10.2	Arguments for Bilingual Education and for Immersion Programs	200

Tables

1.1	Arbitrary signs vs. iconic signs (snake image © iStockphoto.com/futureimage)	page 7
2.1	Projected changes in global language communities	34
3.1	Lexical vs. grammatical word categories	43
3.2	Adding different stems to the same root	45
3.3	American words borrowed from other cultures	51
3.4	Examples of loanwords	52
4.1	Indo-European cognates	65
5.1	Common syntactic categories	93
5.2	Differing approaches to grammar study	97
6.1	IPA symbols for American English consonants	106
6.2	IPA symbols for American English vowels	107
6.3	Voicing and articulation for consonants	109
6.4	Places and manners of articulation for vowels	110
7.1	Common semantic roles	130
7.2	Speech acts perform actions through words	134
8.1	Commonly recognized rules of Chicano English	154
8.2	Commonly recognized rules of AAE	158
8.3	Gender differences in speech within western cultures	160
9.1	Living Native American language communities	182
10.1	Phonological transfer errors	194