

CONTENTS

1. INTRODUCTION	1
2. IDENTITY THEORIES.....	9
2.1. Philosophy, the body and literary theory.....	9
2.2. Identity in social perspective	19
2.3. Social psychology	28
2.4. Consequences.....	36
3. THE ERN MALLEY HOAX.....	41
3.1. Background.....	42
3.2. One sad sister.....	46
3.3. Identity of a fictional poet.....	51
3.4. Who exposed what: reactions and results.....	65
3.5. Reviewing the hoax	70
4. THE CASE OF THE DOUBLE D	73
4.1. The Hand that Signed the Paper : Victims and perpetrators.....	75
4.2. Living an ethnic author identity.....	101
4.3. Reading the ethnic author	117
4.4. Exposure and adjustment	124
4.5. Summing up the scandal	146
5. B. WONGAR: IDENTITY AS TEXT	149
5.1. Introducing a multiplicity of textual layers	149
5.1.1. Sreten Bozic.....	149
5.1.2. Bozic as anthropologist	158
5.1.3. Assumed exposed.....	163
5.2. B. Wongar I, the GI	164
5.3. Writing the Aborigine: B. Wongar II	175
5.3.1. A dying world	175
5.3.2. Presenting the author	180
5.3.3. A crisis of authenticity	184
5.4. Grafting Wongar II onto Bozic: Raki and beyond	201
5.4.1. An author of epic dimensions	201
5.4.2. Re-writing the author – anew.....	222
5.5. Embracing the Other: Responses to persistent AIM iridescence.....	228
5.6. Results and questions.....	235

INTRODUCTION

6.	F.P.G.: THE LIVING AIM	243
6.1.	From Greve to Grove.....	243
6.2.	From Grove to Greve.....	249
6.3.	Fictional autobiographies: Writing the Canadian author.....	255
6.4.	Synopsis of a deceptive success.....	266
7.	COMPARING FABRICATIONS.....	269
8.	APPENDIX: ILLUSTRATIONS	275
9.	WORKS CITED	279
10.	INDEX.....	307