

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	2
Preface	3
Transliteration Key	7
Chapter One: Setting the Scene for Text in Context	10
Chapter Two: Stylistic Shock Waves and the Rhetoric of the Unexpected	20
Chapter Three: The Stylistic Informativity of Tense, Number and Gender Reference-Switching	37
Chapter Four: From Embellishment to Rhetorical Effect	53
Chapter Five: The Grammar of Stylistic Unexpectedness	70
Chapter Six: The Form-Meaning Debate and the Cohesion and Coherence of Texts	91
Chapter Seven: The Cohesion and Coherence of Texts: FaSāHa and balāgha in Arabic Rhetoric	98
Chapter Eight: Countering Text Receiver Expectations and the Notion of Creativity	109
Chapter Nine: Intentionality and the Pragmatic Manipulation of Language for Rhetorical Effect	131
Chapter Ten: Speech Acts in Connected Discourse	147

Chapter Eleven: The Semiotics of the Sign and the Notion of Texts within Texts in Arabic Rhetoric	171
Chapter Twelve: The Grammar of Message Construction: al-Jurjānee's naZm	187
Chapter Thirteen: Arabic Rhetoric as the Science of Brevity and Necessary Redundancy	198
Chapter Fourteen: A Rhetorical Grammar of Redundancy	218
Chapter Fifteen: The Rhetoric of Connectivity as a Text Grammar of Cohesion	232
Glossary of Rhetorical & Text-Linguistic Terms	246
References	267