

Contents

List of Figures	vii
List of Tables	ix
List of Contributors	xi
1 Introduction: Turning Adult, Becoming Nationalized Katrine Fangen and Ferdinand Andreas Mohn	1
2 Spain: Irregular Lives in the Southern Rim of Europe Carles Feixa, Oriol Romani, Nadia Hakim, Andrea Latorre Reolon, Laura Porzio and Alexis Rodríguez	17
3 The UK: Imperial Spectres, New Migrations and the State of 'Permanent Emergency' Les Back and Shamser Sinha	51
4 Estonia: A Post-Soviet Predicament Kristina Kallas and Kristjan Kaldur	81
5 Italy: Unreceptive Climate and Forced Adulthood Roberto Alzetta, Francesca Lagomarsino and Andrea Ravecca	109
6 Norway: The Pitfalls of Egalitarianism Katrine Fangen and Ferdinand Andreas Mohn	139
7 France: Diversity in the Republican Nation Vincent Ferry, Xavier Engels and Marie Lambert	175
8 Sweden: Being a Stranger in the 'People's Home' Nils Hammarén	203
9 Assessing the Situation: Cross-National Comparison Katrine Fangen and Ferdinand Andreas Mohn	237
Index	275

List of Figures

2.1	Young migrant population according to age and nationality (Catalonia, 2008)	20
3.1	Total international migration to and from the UK 1998–2007	54
7.1	Motives used to legally enter the French territory in 2004 (%)	179
7.2	Delivered residence permits by age and gender in 2004	179
8.1	Proportion with university education among foreign citizens (Sweden)	216
8.2	Proportion of the population who started undergraduate studies at the age of 25 by background, 1998–2004 (%)	217

List of Tables

2.1	Generations of migrants	22
3.1	Young adults of 'immigrant background'	59
4.1	Estonia's ethnic diversity 1897–2008 (%)	83
4.2	Unemployment rate among ethnic Estonians and non-Estonians (% annual average)	91
4.3	Average income per family member among ethnic groups 1994–2006 (EEK per family member per month)	92
5.1	Young adult immigrant origin population development in the period 2003–2005 breakdown by gender and age	110
5.2	Young adult (18–25) immigrant population distribution by geographical areas	111
5.3	The 5 national groups most often reported to the police during the period 1993–2007	131
7.1	Criteria/appreciations used by teenagers (15–25) to define themselves	196