
Contents

Notes on Contributors	viii
Introduction Gene Andrew Jarrett	1
Part I. The Literatures of Africa, Middle Passage, Slavery, and Freedom: The Early and Antebellum Periods, c.1750–1865	9
1. Back to the Future: Eighteenth-Century Transatlantic Black Authors Vincent Carretta	11
2. Africa in Early African American Literature James Sidbury	25
3. Ports of Call, Pulpits of Consultation: Rethinking the Origins of African American Literature Frances Smith Foster and Kim D. Green	45
4. The Constitution of Toussaint: Another Origin of African American Literature Michael J. Drexler and Ed White	59
5. Religion in Early African American Literature Joanna Brooks and Tyler Mabry	75
6. The Economies of the Slave Narrative Philip Gould	90
7. The 1850s: The First Renaissance of Black Letters Maurice S. Lee	103
8. African American Literary Nationalism Robert S. Levine	119

9. Periodicals, Print Culture, and African American Poetry Ivy G. Wilson	133
Part II. New Negro Aesthetics, Culture, and Politics: The Modern Period, 1865–c.1940	149
10. Racial Uplift and the Literature of the New Negro Marlon B. Ross	151
11. The Dialect of New Negro Literature Gene Andrew Jarrett	169
12. African American Literary Realism, 1865–1914 André N. Williams	185
13. Folklore and African American Literature in the Post-Reconstruction Era Shirley Moody-Turner	200
14. The Harlem Renaissance: The New Negro at Home and Abroad Michelle Ann Stephens	212
15. Transatlantic Collaborations: Visual Culture in African American Literature Cherene Sherrard-Johnson	227
16. Aesthetic Hygiene: Marcus Garvey, W.E.B. Du Bois, and the Work of Art Mark Christian Thompson	243
17. African American Modernism and State Surveillance William J. Maxwell	254
Part III. Reforming the Canon, Tradition, and Criticism of African American Literature: The Contemporary Period, c.1940–Present	269
18. The Chicago Renaissance Michelle Yvonne Gordon	271
19. Jazz and African American Literature Keith D. Leonard	286
20. The Black Arts Movement James Edward Smethurst	302
21. Humor in African American Literature Glenda R. Carpio	315
22. Neo-Slave Narratives Madhu Dubey	332

23. Popular Black Women's Fiction and the Novels of Terry McMillan Robin V. Smiles	347
24. African American Science Fiction Jeffrey Allen Tucker	360
25. Latino/a Literature and the African Diaspora Theresa Delgadillo	376
26. African American Literature and Queer Studies: The Conundrum of James Baldwin Guy Mark Foster	393
27. African American Literature and Psychoanalysis Arlene R. Keizer	410
Name Index	421
Subject Index	442