3.6 Conclusion ........................................... 56

4 An approach towards Learning Concepts and Semantics 59
   4.1 What can we learn from biology and cognitive science? .... 62
   4.2 State-of-the-art: Approaches and their Philosophy ........ 64
   4.3 Overview of a System for Audio-Visual Concept Learning ... 70
   4.4 An Approach to Unsupervised Audio-Visual Learning ...... 72
      4.4.1 Representation of Classes and their Association ....... 72
      4.4.2 Identifying Matches and Mismatches ................ 75
      4.4.3 Detecting Known-, Novel-, or Independent Classes .... 77
      4.4.4 Updating Multimodal class Representations ............ 81
      4.4.5 Learning Associations ................................ 82
      4.4.6 An Algorithm for Simultaneous Learning of Multimodal Classes 83
   4.5 Experiments and Evaluation ............................. 85
      4.5.1 Learning of Visual Classes .......................... 85
      4.5.2 Parameter Setting and System Performance ............. 86
      4.5.3 Learning in Interaction .............................. 91
   4.6 Discussion ........................................... 93
   4.7 Conclusion ........................................... 96

5 Towards the Learning of Semantics with a Complete, Embodied System 97
   5.1 Related Work ......................................... 98
   5.2 System Design ......................................... 100
      5.2.1 Integrating Proto-Objects as Perceptual Basis for Concept Learning 101
      5.2.2 From Proto-Object to 3D-Basket: Obtaining a Task-Specific Representation 102
      5.2.3 Closing the Loop: The Integration of Robot Actions .... 104
   5.3 Results and Discussion ................................. 107
      5.3.1 Experiment Description .............................. 107
      5.3.2 Results and Discussion .............................. 109
   5.4 Conclusion ........................................... 111
