

Contents

---

Preface	ix
Abbreviations	xiv
1 Introduction	1
1.1 The texts and their background	1
1.2 Studies of Shakespeare's language	7
1.3 This grammar	14
2 The Linguistic Background	15
2.1 The general background	15
2.2 Punctuation	22
2.3 Spelling	30
3 The Noun Group	34
3.1 The noun group and its parts	34
3.2 Morphology	35
3.3 Structure and use	48
4 The Verb Group	87
4.1 The verb group and its parts	87
4.2 Morphology	88
4.3 Function and use	103
4.4 Verb types	139
5 Adverbials, Interjections, Conjunctions and Prepositions	148
5.1 Adverbials	149
5.2 Interjections	163
5.3 Conjunctions	165
5.4 Prepositions	177
6 Concord, Negation, Ellipsis and Repetition	201
6.1 Concord	201
6.2 Negation	206
6.3 Ellipsis	216
6.4 Repetition	229

7	Clause Organisation and Sentence Structure	233
7.1	Declarative	233
7.2	Imperative	247
7.3	Interrogative	252
7.4	Exclamatory	255
7.5	Sentence structure	256
7.6	Unusual structures	267
8	Discourse and Register	271
8.1	Forms of address	271
8.2	Conversational strategies	283
8.3	Discourse markers	290
8.4	Ideolects and registers	300
9	Pragmatics	304
9.1	The co-operative principle	304
9.2	Discourse and class	317
9.3	Politeness theory	320
10	Conclusion	326
10.1	Shakespeare's language	326
10.2	Editing	331
10.3	Conclusion	344
	Bibliography	345
	Index	362
	General	362
	Words	387