

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Prologue	xi
Introduction: Questioning the Success of Welfare Reform	1
1. History and Political Economy of Welfare in the United States and Oregon	19
2. Velvet Gloves, Iron Fists, and Rose-Colored Glasses: Welfare Administrators and the Official Story of Welfare Restructuring	32
3. Doing the Work of Welfare: Enforcing “Self-Sufficiency” on the Front Lines	64
4. Negotiating Neoliberal Ideology and “On the Ground” Reality in Welfare Work	84
5. The Other Side of the Desk: Client Experiences and Perspectives on Welfare Restructuring	111
6. Life After Welfare: The Costs of Low-Wage Employment	144
Conclusion: Reforming Welfare “Reform”	178
Appendix: Situating Ourselves	205
Notes	209
Bibliography	219
Index	233