

CONTENTS

Preface	VII
Long-term perspectives on man and landscape in the Meuse-Demer-Scheldt region. An introduction Nico Roymans/Frans Theuws	I
Urnfield symbolism, ancestors and the land in the Lower Rhine Region Nico Roymans/Fokko Kortlang	33
The Early Iron Age urnfield of Beegden Nico Roymans (with a contribution by Menno Hoogland)	63
Urnfield and settlement traces from the Iron Age at Mierlo-Hout Adri Tol	87
The Iron Age urnfield and settlement from Someren-‘Waterdael’ Fokko Kortlang	133
Late Iron Age human skeletal remains from the river Meuse at Kessel: a river cult place? Muuk ter Schegget	199
The archaeology and history of the curia of the abbey of Saint Trond at Hulsel (province of North Brabant) (c. AD 700-1300) Frans Theuws	241
Gift exchange, landed property and eternity. The foundation and endowment of the Premonstratensian priory of Postel (1128/1138-1179) Arnoud-Jan Bijsterveld	309
Local communities in their landscape in the rent district of Eersel/Bergeyk (14th-16th centuries) Daniel Vangheluwe	349