

Contents

|  |      |
|--|------|
| List of Figures                                       | vii  |
| List of Tables  | viii |
| Preface   | ix   |
| Acknowledgements                                      | x    |
| Introduction   |      |
| Part One: The Historical Perspective                  |      |
| 1 The Growth of World Population                             | 7    |
| 2 World Population Movements and Distribution                | 21   |
| 3 Resources: Their Nature and Distribution                   | 34   |
| 4 Population—Resource Relationships                          | 53   |
| Part Two: The Developed World                         |      |
| 5 Population Problems and Movements                          | 73   |
| 6 Diagnostic Characteristics and Problems                    | 97   |
| Part Three: The Developing World                      |      |
| 7 Population Growth in the Third World                       | 121  |
| 8 Social Problems  | 144  |
| 9 Economic Problems  | 166  |
| 10 Political Problems  | 191  |
| Part Four: Future Trends, Possibilities and Solutions |      |
| 11 People, Land and Food                                     | 203  |
| 12 Resource Consumption                                      | 222  |
| 13 Possible Solutions  | 234  |
| 14 Conclusion  | 246  |

Bibliography

254

References

262

Index

271