

1. Introduction	1
The Nature of Geographic Study	3
The Approaches of Urban Geographers	5
The Approaches of This Book	6
The Structure of This Book	7
2. Urban Terminology and Classifications	9
General Terminology	9
Formalized Terminology	11
Urban Classifications	19
Traditional Classifications	19
Recent Approaches to City Classification	21
Seduction by New Techniques: A Cautionary Word	28
3. The City in History	31
Development of Early Campsites and Villages	31
Transformation from Village to City	33
Areas of City Origin	33
Characteristics of the Earliest Cities	39
Dispersal of City Formation	41
The Bases of City Development, Diffusion, and Decline	43
Structural Components of the Ancient City	44
Basic Types of Urban Patterns	46
Medieval Cities	50
Cities of the Renaissance	54
The Rise of the Mercantile City	56
Formation and Dispersal of Major Cities of the United States	60
4. Recent Urbanization: World Regions and the United States	63
Urban Growth and Urbanization	63
The Urbanization Curve	65
Regional and National Contrasts in Urbanization	67
Urbanization in the United States	73
Structure and Trends in the Urban Population of the United States	78
Future Estimates: World and Major Regions	85
A Possible New Settlement Form in the Future	86
5. Quality of Urban Life and the Livability of Cities	93
Quality of Urban Life Components	94
Environmental Component	95
Economic Component	111
Political Component	112

Health and Education Component	114
Social Component	116
The Overall Quality of Life in Metropolitan Areas	120
Urban Growth and the Quality of Urban Life	123
6. Urban Hierarchies and Urban Regions	125
Rank-Size Relationships	126
Formalization of the Relationships Between Rank and Size of Cities	128
The Significance of the Rank-Size Concept	130
The k Value	132
Distortions of k and the Urban Pyramid	132
Current Alteration of the Urban Pyramid	134
Nodal Regions and Urban Focal Points	138
Delimitation of Nodal Regions	143
Empirical Means of Regional Delimitation	143
Theoretical Methods of Regional Delimitation	147
7. Central Place Concepts	153
Spatial Setting of Central Place Functions	154
Development of Lowest Order Central Places	156
Structural Elements of the Functional Hierarchy	157
Spatial Aspects of the Central Place Hierarchy	162
Changes in the Nesting Principle	171
Systems of Nesting and the k Value	172
Reality and Distortions of a Regular Urban Settlement Pattern	174
Conclusions	181
8. The Labor Force and Economic Base of the City	183
Employment Status of the Urban Labor Force	184
Earnings and Occupations	187
Sectors of the Urban Economy	190
The Problem of Measurement	193
Classification of Base Types	195
Base Ratios	195
Methods of Base Identification	197
Special Problems of Base Identification	205
The Utility of Economic Base Studies	206
Focus on the Basic Sector	207
Specialization in the Urban Economy	213
9. Land Use in the City	217
Land and Land Use	217
Measurement and Classification of Urban Land Use	218
Inputs of Urban Land in Cities of the United States	223
Relationships and Associations in the Land Use Mix	226
Urban Population and the Land Use Mix	233
Land Use Specialization	234
Models of the Internal Structure of Cities	238
Land Use Densities	242

The Special Case of the Transition Zone	243
Public and Semipublic Land	246
Vacant Urban Land: The Nonuse of an Urban Asset	254
Special Topics in Urban Land Use	261
10. Land Values and Land Use Zoning	265
The Meaning and Expression of Land Values	265
Factors Influencing Urban Land Values	266
The Centrality of Urban Land Values	267
A Theory of Urban Land Values	270
Trends and Changes in Land Values	274
Land Values, Land Taxation, and Land Use	276
Land Use Zoning	280
11. Social Geography of the City	287
Social Groups	287
Criteria for Identification of Social Groups	288
Social Areas in the City	290
Examples of Social Areas in Western Cities	293
Examples of Social Areas in Non-Western Cities	296
Social Variables	298
Age Structure and Marital Status	298
Race and Ethnic Groups	301
Family and Household Status	302
Housing Characteristics	303
Income and Occupations	304
Urban Poverty	306
Delinquency and Crime	306
Health Care Delivery Systems	310
Mobility	312
12. Residential Structure of the City	319
Zonation of Residential Areas of the City	322
The Process of Succession of Residential Areas	326
The Inner Residential Zone	328
Other Residential Zones	334
Urban Population Densities	337
Urban Population Density Models	338
Urban Population Densities in Different Culture Areas	344
Population Densities and Size and Age of Cities	345
Spatial Variation in Quality of Urban Housing	348
Concepts of Blight, Slums, and Substandard Housing	348
From Slum Clearance to Urban Renewal	350
Elements of the Urban Renewal Process	351
Some Emerging Problems Having to Do with Urban Renewal	353
The Motionless Mobile Home and Modular Housing	354
13. Commercial Activities and Centers in the City	359
Localization of Commercial Activities	361
A Functional Hierarchy of Urban Commercial Centers	365

Commercial Space Above Ground Level	377
A Spatial Hierarchy of Intraurban Commercial Centers	381
Blight and Succession of Commercial Centers	389
14. Manufacturing in the City	391
Factors Influencing the Location of Urban Manufacturing Industries	395
Linkages in Manufacturing	398
Localization of Manufacturing in Urban Settings	402
Waterfront Districts	403
Railroad Districts	405
Highway Districts	405
The Pattern Today	406
The Planned Industrial District	408
Zonation of Manufacturing in the City	413
Trends in Spatial Change of Urban Manufacturing	417
15. Transportation and Movement in the City	421
Space Used for Transportation	422
Principles of Urban Transportation	428
Trip Types and Source Areas of Tripmakers	434
Traffic Generators	438
Transit Systems	443
Aspects of the Demand for Public Transit	451
Energy Sources and Efficiencies in Urban Transportation	456
Urban Effects of Highway Development and Redevelopment	458
Summary	466
16. Urban Sprawl, Urban Planning, and New Towns	467
Urban Sprawl	467
The Situation in Cities of the United States	468
Problems Associated with Urban Sprawl	469
Planning and Cities	472
City Planning	473
Elements of the City Plan	474
The Comprehensive Plan	476
New Towns	476
New Towns in the United States	480
New Towns and Urban Policy	483
17. Urban Policy, Urban Governments, and Urban Prospects	487
Urban Policy	487
Governmental Structure in Metropolitan Areas	491
The Alternative of Metropolitan Government	495
Urban Conditions and Prospects: World Contrasts	499
Epilogue	503