

CONTENTS

Foreword	1
Chapter 1 A Manifold Expectation of Poetry	4
1. Poetry as a Social Discourse	5
2. Poetry as an Aesthetic Discourse	8
2.1 Poetic Xing	11
2.2 Poetic Guan	13
2.3 Poetic Qun	15
2.4 Poetic Yuan	15
3. Poetry as a Moral Discourse	17
Chapter 2 Confucius and Plato on Music	24
1. Psychical Effect of Music	25
2. Aesthetic Value of Music	28
3. Moral Function of Music	32
4. Political Expectation of Music	36
5. Pedagogical Worth of Music	39
6. A Comparative Remark	43
Chapter 3 A Debate on the Functions of Music ...	48
1. Against Music: Mozi's Negative Utilitarianism	50
2. For Music: Xunzi's Positive Utilitarianism	55
3. A Reconsideration of the Opposing Views	62
Chapter 4 A Critical Illumination of Poetic Styles	68
1. The Literary Development: Form and Style	70
1.1 The Institutional Factor	72

1.2 The Fashion Impact	73
1.3 The Political Element	73
1.4 Group Dynamics	74
1.5 Historico-cultural Context	75
1.6 Artistic Individuality	76
2. Artistic Creation: Proper Inclusiveness and Holistic Vision	77
3. Stylistic Paradigms: Naturalness, Gracefulness and Elegance	84
3.1 Naturalness as Beauty	84
3.2 Gracefulness and Elegance	86
Chapter 5 A Moralistic View of Poetry	94
1. Conformity to the Moral Principle a priori	95
2. A Bi-polarized Treatment of the Guofeng	101
3. Second Reflection on "Having No Depraved Thoughts"	111
Chapter 6 Poetic Wisdom in Zen Enlightenment	124
1. Revelation from Natural Scenes	126
2. Natural Spontaneity as a Psychological Path	130
3. A Poetic Way of Zen Enlightenment	137
3.1 Gradual Enlightenment	139
3.2 Sudden Enlightenment	142
4. The Realm of Sūnyatā as Beauty	147
Chapter 7 Aesthetic Criticism of Transculturality ...	154
1. Beyond East and West: An Transcultural Transformation	156
2. Aesthetic Education as a Critical Necessity (Meiyu Shuo)	161

3. Art as a Refuge from Suffering (Jietuo Shuo)	167
4. Art as Aesthetic Play for Freedom (Youxi Shuo)	172
5. The Artist as Creative Genius (Tiancai Shuo)	174
6. The Refined as the Second Form (Guya Shuo)	177
7. The Theory of Poetic State par Excellence (Jingjie Shuo)	181
7.1 The Creative State versus the Descriptive State	184
7.2 The State of Self-involvement versus the State of Self-detachment	184
7.3 The Great Poetic State and the Minor Poetic State	186
7.4 The Veiled and the Non-veiled	186
Chapter 8 A Sublime Poetics of Māratic Type ...	196
1. Historical Significance in Perspective	197
2. The Māratic School and the Māra Allegory	200
2.1 The Basic Features of the Māratic School	200
2.2 The Multi-implications of Māra	203
3. Dismantling the Old While Establishing the New	207
3.1 A New Notion of Culture	208
3.2 A New Conception of Literature and Art	211
3.3 A New Type of Aesthetics	216
3.4 A New Mode of Literary Criticism and Poetic Cultivation	221
4. Summary	223
Afterword	231
Appendix
Key References	233
Index	241
Acknowledgements	255