

Contents

Preface	i
Johan Swinnen
Introduction.....	1
Eleni Kaditi
PART I. TRADE AGREEMENTS AND EU AGRICULTURE
1. Key issues surrounding general trade agreements.....	9
Petra Salamon, Crescenzo dell'Aquila, Ellen Huan-Niemi, Hans Jensen, Marianne Kurzweil, Oliver von Ledebur and Jyrki Niemi
2. The Euro-Mediterranean Partnership and the issues at stake.....	44
Marijke Kuiper
3. Reforming the EU's domestic support in the Doha round: Measurement, feasibility and consequences.....	76
Hans Jensen and Wusheng Yu
4. WTO agricultural negotiations: A comparison of recent proposals for market access	115
Martina Brockmeier, Rainer Klepper and Janine Pelikan
5. An economy-wide perspective on Euro-Mediterranean trade agreements with a focus on Morocco and Tunisia.....	146
Marijke Kuiper and Frank van Tongeren
PART II. TRADE AND MULTIFUNCTIONALITY OF AGRICULTURE IN EU COUNTRIES
6. International trade, agricultural policy reform and the multifunctionality of EU agriculture: A framework for analysis.....	187
Janet Dwyer and Hervé Guyomard
7. Evaluating the impact of alternative agricultural policy scenarios on multifunctionality: A case study of Finland.....	203
Heikki Lehtonen, Jussi Lankoski and Jyrki Niemi

8.	Modelling agricultural multifunctionality: A case study of the Czech Republic	236
	Tomáš Doucha and Ivan Foltýn
9.	The impact of potential WTO trade reform on greenhouse gas and ammonia emissions from agriculture: A case study of Ireland	256
	Trevor Donnellan and Kevin Hanrahan
10.	Modelling the effects of trade policy on the multifunctionality of agriculture: A social accounting matrix approach for Greece	277
	Demetrios Psaltopoulos and Eudokia Balamou
11.	Multifunctionality and the implications for EU policies.....	299
	Yiorgos Alexopoulos, David Baldock, Dimitris Damianos and Janet Dwyer
	Glossary of Abbreviations.....	318
	Contributors	321