

Contents

---

1 Introduction

7

Government initiatives and the recreation profession
The field of Leisure Studies
The geographer's contribution
Summary
Some questions for discussion
References
Further reading

2 Leisure and Recreation: Some Definitions and Basic Concepts

17

Industrialisation and the work process
The impact of work on leisure
The main definitional categories
Theories of leisure
Summary
Some exercises and questions for discussion
References
Further reading

3 Concepts of Demand

29

Latent demand
Time famine
Induced, substitute and diverted demand
Two empirical studies
Summary
Some exercises and questions for discussion
References
Further reading

4 Participation

45

Demographic factors
Population distribution and age structure
Time availability
Income and wealth
Summary
Some questions for discussion
References
Further reading

5 Supply

67

The land use continuum
The Clawson classification and its derivatives
Australian classifications
Pressure groups and recreational 'potential'
Recreation suitability
The Canada Land Inventory
Australian approaches
Summary
Some exercises and questions for discussion
References
Further reading

6 Some Contemporary Issues and Controversies

85

Equity
Allocation and rationing
Recreation impact
Conflicts between activities
The future?
Some exercises and questions for discussion
References
Further reading

Appendix A

103

Organisations in Victoria Offering Employment in the Recreation Field

Appendix B

104

Useful Reference Sources