

Contents

Alexandra N. Lenz & Albrecht Plewnia: On Grammar between Norm and Variation	7
Markus Hundt: New norms – How new grammatical constructions emerge.....	27
Beate Henn-Memmesheimer: Ephemera and Tradition-Founding Grammatical Constructions: Staging and Acceptance	59
Ulrich Busse & Anne Schröder: Problem areas of English grammar between usage, norm, and variation.....	87
Renata Szczepaniak: Während des Flug(e)s/des Ausflug(e)s? German Short and Long Genitive Endings between Norm and Variation	103
Stephan Elspaß: Regional Standard Variation in and out of Grammarian’s Focus.....	127
Jürg Fleischer: Norm and variation in the relative order of accusative and dative personal pronouns in German: Evidence from corpora (18th–21st century)	145
Christa Dürscheid & Nadia Giger: Variation in the case system of German – linguistic analysis and optimality theory	167
Petra Campe: Syntactic variation in German adnominal constructions: An application to the alternatives ‘genitive’, ‘apposition’ and ‘compound’	193
Joybrato Mukherjee: Corpus-based Insights into Verb-complementational Innovations in Indian English: Cases of Nativised Semantico-structural Analogy	219
Reinhard Goltz: Norms and Variation in the Process of Modernizing and Vitalizing the Low German Regional Language	243
Claudia Maria Riehl: Norm and variation in language minority settings.....	275