

CONTENTS

Contributors · xiii
Editors' and Authors' Acknowledgments · xvii

Introduction: An Extensive Republic · 1
Robert A. Gross

Section I. A Republic in Print: Ideologies and Institutions

Introduction · 53
Mary Kelley

CHAPTER 1

The Revolution's Legacy
for the History of the Book · 58
Richard D. Brown

CHAPTER 2

The Book Trades in the New Nation

Part 1. The Rise of Book Publishing · 75
James N. Green

Part 2. Case Study: Harper & Brothers · 128
Scott E. Casper

Part 3. Case Study: Urban Printing · 137
Karen Nipps

Part 4. "Printing is something every village has in it":
Rural Printing and Publishing · 145
Jack Larkin

Part 5. "Of the paper cap and inky apron":
Journeyman Printers · 160
William S. Pretzer

Section II. Spreading the Word in Print

Introduction · 175

Mary Kelley

CHAPTER 3

Government and Law

Part 1. Print and Politics · 179

John L. Brooke

Part 2. Have Pen, Will Travel:

The Times and Life of John Norvell, Political Journalist · 190

Jeffrey L. Pasley

Part 3. Copyright · 198

Meredith L. McGill

Part 4. Expanding the Realm of Communications · 211

Richard R. John

CHAPTER 4

Benevolent Books: Printing, Religion, and Reform · 221

David Paul Nord

CHAPTER 5

The Learned World · 247

David S. Shields

Section III. Educating the Citizenry

Introduction · 269

Mary Kelley

CHAPTER 6

Libraries and Schools

Part 1. Libraries · 273

Kenneth E. Carpenter

Part 2. Schools · 286

Gerald F. Moran and Maris A. Vinovskis

Part 3. Schoolbooks · 304

Charles Monaghan and E. Jennifer Monaghan

Part 4. Colleges and Print Culture · 318
Dean Grodzins and Leon Jackson

Part 5. Female Academies and Seminaries and Print Culture · 332
Mary Kelley

Section IV. Gendering Authorship and Audiences

Introduction · 347
Mary Kelley

CHAPTER 7
Men Writing in the Early Republic · 350
David Leverenz

CHAPTER 8
Women Writing in the Early Republic · 364
Joanne Dobson and Sandra A. Zagarell

Section V. Genres of Print

Introduction · 385
Mary Kelley

CHAPTER 9
Periodical Press: Newspapers, Magazines, and Reviews

Part 1. Newspapers and Periodicals · 389
Andie Tucher

Part 2. Harriet Newell's Story: Women, the Evangelical Press, and the Foreign Mission Movement · 408
Mary Kupiec Cayton

Part 3. Making Friends at the Southern Literary Messenger · 416
Leon Jackson

CHAPTER 10
Word and Image

Part 1. Transformations in Pictorial Printing · 422
Georgia B. Barnhill

Part 2. Novels · 440

Elizabeth Barnes

Part 3. Travel Books · 449

Dona Brown

Part 4. Biography · 458

Scott E. Casper

Section VI. New Reading and Writing Publics

Introduction · 467

Mary Kelley

CHAPTER 11

Making Communities in Print

Part 1. Readers and Writers of German · 471

A. Gregg Roeber

Part 2. Give Me a Sign:

African Americans, Print, and Practice · 483

Grey Gundaker

Part 3. Literacy and Colonization:

The Case of the Cherokees · 495

Barry O'Connell

CHAPTER 12

Reading for an Extensive Republic · 516

Robert A. Gross

Bibliography and the AAS Catalog: A Note on Tables · 545

Robert A. Gross

Notes · 551

Index · 669