

CONTENTS

	Introduction	xi
1	Frank Wells and I Where I learned $1 + 1 = 3$ (if not much more)	1
2	Warren Buffett and Charlie Munger "Warren and I are kind of an historical accident. It's not a standard model."	31
3	Bill and Melinda Gates "Be smarter faster."	55
4	Brian Grazer and Ron Howard "We view the world differently, but we arrive at the same conclusions."	87
5	Valentino and Giancarlo Giammetti "This isn't a story about money or fashion or power. It's a story about love."	113

6	Steve Rubell and Ian Schrager	139
	Two guys from Brooklyn
7	Arthur Blank and Bernie Marcus	163
	"It was always about the business. Whenever we did anything, the question was, Is it good for the business?"
8	Susan Feniger and Mary Sue Milliken	199
	"A good partnership has to allow for a certain amount of separation."
9	Joe Torre and Don Zimmer	221
	"Hit and run."
10	John Angelo and Michael Gordon	251
	"Smart as hell . . . and scrupulously honest."
	Epilogue	273
	Happiness	