

Contents

1. Preface .....	1
2. Illustrations.....	6
3. Travails: the Material and Mental Conditions of Travelling to and in Turkey .....	35
3.1 What the guide books advised.....	35
3.2 Mediterranean sailings .....	37
3.3 Steam boats on the Danube and the advance of civilization .....	40
3.4 Trains: steam, speed and blurred impressions.....	42
3.5 Across Anatolia: strange and ancient modes of travelling.....	44
3.6 Long hours on the road: some routes and distances.....	46
3.7 Travelling companions, interpreters and couriers.....	48
3.8 Equipment, provisions and nights under an open sky.....	50
3.9 Hostelries and hovels .....	52
3.10 Anatolia on the mind: the experience of hospitality, avarice, hostility and the lack of privacy .....	54
4. Cutthroats: British Travellers and the Hazards of Piracy and Banditry .....	64
4.1 Pirates, the Greek War of Independence and Philhellenes .....	64
4.2 Ignoble bandits .....	69
4.3 The doubtful protection of native costume .....	73
4.4 Bandits, robbers and Ottoman countermeasures.....	74
5. The Genius of the Place: Images of the Turkish Countryside.....	82
5.1 Divine punishment: wilderness and fallen cities.....	82
5.2 The misrule of the sultans: Anatolia depopulated.....	89
5.3 Sublime and picturesque landscapes .....	93
6. Useless Urns: Travellers and their Search for Classical Antiquities.....	101
6.1 Purloining bits and pieces .....	101
6.2 Coins and changes in connoisseurship.....	103
6.3 Cheating the cheats: haggling over treasures .....	106
6.4 Magic spells and gold in marble stones .....	108
7. Le Petit Paris du Levant: 19th Century Izmir .....	111
7.1 Early visitors, early Levantine society .....	111
7.2 A small, strange Paris.....	112
7.3 Izmir, classical and commercial.....	115
7.4 Bloodshed and the authorities during the Greek Rising of 1821-29.....	117
7.5 The good life .....	121
7.6 Framed beauty: picturesque views of Smyrniote ladies.....	124
7.7 Labyrinthine Izmir and ethnic chaos.....	125
7.8 The panorama of the city: painting with words .....	129

8. 19th Century Istanbul as Aesthetic Object.....	135
8.1 Picturesque landscape and architecture: the debate among the British.....	135
8.2 Picturesque views of the city.....	138
8.3 Picturesque mosques and Oriental swoons .....	139
8.4 Panoramic views of Istanbul .....	145
9. Istanbul as Labyrinth.....	151
9.1 The maze of the interior, dangerous and romantic.....	151
9.2 Streets, darkness and stray dogs.....	155
9.3 Transport: carts and sedan chairs .....	157
9.4 Going in fear of the plague.....	159
9.5 Fires: beautiful, lethal, political .....	163
9.6 Oases: British social life in the city.....	165
10. Lions: the Sights of Istanbul.....	175
10.1 Where to go: places and itineraries .....	175
10.2 The Hagia Sophia.....	177
10.3 Madmen and opium eaters .....	179
10.4 The Great Bazaar.....	182
11. Ottoman Slavery.....	186
11.1 Slavery: the debate among the British .....	186
11.2 Market realities versus painters and writers.....	187
11.3 Dignitaries, imperial concubines and ordinary women: the social mobility of slaves .....	190
12. Manifestations of Islam.....	196
12.1 Islam as foundation of ethics and politics .....	196
12.2 The reputation of Mohammed.....	199
12.3 Ecstasy in honour of God: the Howling and Whirling Dervishes.....	200
13. Ottoman Outdoor Recreations.....	205
13.1 Cemeteries and playgrounds .....	205
13.2 Picnics on the Bosphorus and on the Golden Horn.....	209
13.3 Turkish men drinking and dancing .....	212
13.4 Male contemplative pleasures: silence, tobacco, coffee and picturesque scenery.....	214
13.5 Travellers sketching, with risks, Ottoman beauties .....	217
14. Ottoman Meals and British Palates .....	223
14.1 Dining in style .....	224
14.2 Bread, cheese and happiness: a taste of the pastoral .....	230
15. Body and Soul: the Physical and Moral Character of the Ottoman Turks.....	234
15.1 The theory of climates and the Turkish character.....	234
15.2 Virtues and vices: from essentialist to anecdotal description .....	239
15.3 O brave new world, that has such people in't: Turkish otherness .....	241
15.4 Ancient peoples and Turkish civilization.....	243

15.5 In search of the moral character of the Turks .....	247
15.6 The geographical ethics of Anatolia .....	250
15.7 The harem: between whorehouse and family idyll .....	253
15.8 Virtues, vices, social etiquette, egalitarianism .....	255
16. Odious Comparisons: Images of Greeks, Armenians and Jews .....	265
16.1 Dress as ethnic index .....	265
16.2 The Greeks: a nation of unchanged liars .....	266
16.3 Armenians: the buffaloes of the East .....	270
16.4 The Jews of Constantinople .....	271
17. The Invention of Ottoman Women .....	274
17.1 Social spaces .....	274
17.2 Women in the streets: inscrutable freedom behind the veil .....	276
17.3 The harem: freedom from material want in a matriarchal space .....	279
17.4 The bath as social space: women talking together .....	283
17.5 Climate and female sensuality .....	284
17.6 The Turkish Bath: lax muscles and lax morals .....	285
17.7 The harem: a depravation of women's nature .....	288
17.8 Happy children in the harem .....	293
17.9 The riddle of sexual freedom .....	295
17.10 Angels in the harem .....	298
17.11 Small talk of reforming the lot of women .....	299
18. God's Shadows on Earth: the Sultans .....	308
18.1 Audiences and dangers to dignity .....	308
18.2 Reading the physiognomy of sultans .....	314
18.3 The Ottoman Peter: Mahmut II .....	318
19. Silken Cords: The Visibility of Ottoman Justice .....	324
19.1 Imaginary gore and naked death .....	324
19.2 A hierarchy of penalties: nailing, by the ears, to a door, the bastinado, the silken cord, beheading, hanging, impaling, drowning of women tied up in sacks .....	329
19.3 Use and misuse of legal procedure .....	334
20. Our Man in Istanbul: Travellers and the Critics .....	339
20.1 Motley travellers, assorted news .....	339
20.2 Romance versus travel book .....	342
20.3 Gentlemen prefer plain style .....	345
20.4 Sentimental and philosophical travellers .....	346
20.5 The talents of lady travellers .....	351
21. Brief Lives: The Careers, Routes and Views of Travellers in Turkey and the Verdict of the Periodicals .....	357

Selective Index .....	411
Key to Periodicals .....	429
Primary Sources .....	430
Secondary Sources .....	438