

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments	9
Introduction	11
Part I Social science representations
Chapter 1 Homogenous weak black masculinity suppressed by matriarchy: Daniel P. Moynihan	33
Chapter 2 Fluid and contextual black masculinity in the public space: Ulf Hannerz.....	45
Chapter 3 A plurality of marginal black masculinities in the domestic space: David A. Schulz	57
Chapter 4 “Authentic” black masculinities forged under white oppression: Kenneth B. Clark	71
Part II Autobiographical representations
Chapter 5 Autoethnographies of “coming up” black: Claude Brown and Dick Gregory.....	87
Chapter 6 From collective to individualistic masculinity: Bobby Seale	103
Chapter 7 Imprisoned masculinities: Eldridge Cleaver and George Jackson	125
Conclusions: A Comparative analysis	151
Works Cited.....	165
Index	183