

TABLE OF CONTENTS

List of Plates, Graphs and Tables	VIII
List of Abbreviations	XI
Acknowledgements	XII
GENERAL INTRODUCTION
Historiography and Goals	1
History and Context	16
Methods and Sources	25
PART I THE “INSTITUTIONALIZATION” OF APPRENTICESHIP
Introduction: The Myths of the Guilds	37
CHAPTER 1 “MARKET EDUCATION”: APPRENTICESHIP IN INDENTURES	41
1.1 Learning through Indentures	41
1.2 From Stealing to Shopping	49
1.3 Learning at Work	53
CHAPTER 2 APPRENTICESHIP IN GUILDS	59
2.1 The Official Terms of Apprenticeship	59
2.2 Masterpieces	68
2.2.1 Adjustments to the Product Market in the “Long Sixteenth Century”	68
2.2.2 The Master Piece at Work: Disciplining, Selective, or Ceremonial?	74
2.2.3 The Importance of Manual Skills, or Guilds and the Artes Mechanicae	81
2.3 Entrance Fees	85
2.3.1 Rising Entrance Fees in Real Terms: Financial Micro-technologies	88
2.3.2 Causes and Consequences of Rising Fees	97
2.3.3 Remaining Inclusive Despite Rising Fees?	101
2.3.4 Intervention by the Authorities? Restoring the Finances of the Craft Guilds	109
2.4 Conclusion: Guilds and Human Capital	114

PART II SOCIAL MOBILITY AND THE LABOUR MARKET

Introduction: Flexible Labour Relations Versus Rigid Corporate Structures?	127
CHAPTER 3 SOCIAL MOBILITY AFTER THE GUILDS	131
3.1 The Norm and Reality of Small Workshops: Comparative Perspectives	131
3.2 Number of Apprentices per Master: a Changing Norm	140
3.3 Number of Apprentices Per Master: a Changing Reality	144
CHAPTER 4 SOCIAL MOBILITY FROM A BOTTOM UP PERSPECTIVE	155
4.1 Free and Unfree Journeymen: Changing Barriers	155
4.2 Master Status: A Changing Objective?	161
4.3 Geographic Mobility: Cities as the Promised Land or as Meccas for Apprentices?	169
4.4 Ages and Careers. Apprentices Caught between Spending Power and Formalities	177
4.5 The Freedom to Choose, to Stay, or to Run Away	185
Conclusion: Guilds as a Matter of Choice?	192

PART III APPRENTICESHIP AS A SYMBOLIC PRACTICE

CHAPTER 5 DAS GANZE HAUS: APPRENTICES BETWEEN LIVING AND WORKING	201
5.1 Introduction	201
5.2 Living-in Apprentices: A Disappearing Custom?	206
5.2.1 The Reality of Boarding for those who were not Sons of Masters	206
5.2.2 The Reality of Boarding for Sons of Masters	210
5.3 Apprentices Between the Guild, the Family, and the Acquisition of Skills	214
5.4 Conclusion: Between Training and Education	223
CHAPTER 6 THE SYMBOLIC VIOLENCE OF APPRENTICESHIP
6.1 Introduction: Guilds as the Backbone of Urban Society and Product Quality	229
6.2 The Holy House of Master Status	233
6.3 Preserving Product Quality and Trust	236
6.4 Defining Competence and Status	243
6.5 The Invention of Talent. Apprentices at the Academy of Fine Arts	250

GENERAL CONCLUSION	261
ANNEXES	277
SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY	283
INDEX	293