

Contents

	List of figures	vii
	List of tables	viii
	Acknowledgements	x
Chapter 1	The growth and spread of shopping centres	1
	Definition	1
	The evolution of the shopping centre idea	2
	Early developments in the USA	4
	Early schemes in Australia	6
	Evolution after 1945	6
	Post-war trends in Britain	9
	Centre development elsewhere in Europe	11
	The spread of centres world-wide	13
	The emergence of the shopping centre industry	14
Chapter 2	Types of shopping centre	17
	The neighbourhood centre	17
	The community centre	22
	The regional centre	23
	Extensions to the traditional classification	26
	The strip centre and super-regional centre	28
	Centres within shopping districts	30
	Multi-use centres	33
	Ancillary centres	34
	Speciality centres	35
	Focused centres	36
Chapter 3	The shopping centre development process	38
	Decisions to initiate a scheme	38
	The planning phase	41
	The construction phase	55
	The opening phase	56
Chapter 4	Shopping centre location	57
	Inter-regional patterns in the USA	57
	Inter-regional patterns in the United Kingdom and France	63

	Inter-urban patterns of development	65
	Intra-urban patterns of centre location	67
	Locations in comprehensively planned cities	69
Chapter 5	The system of traditional suburban centres	73
	Creation and maintenance of a centre system	73
	Shopping centre zoning	75
	Federal environmental protection policies	78
	Operation of the centre system	79
	The renovation of centres	84
	Competition for consumers	86
Chapter 6	Focused and renewal centres	88
	Focused centres	88
	Central area shopping centres	96
Chapter 7	Shopping centres in the future	106
	Appendix – Glossary	111
	References	113
	Bibliography	119
	Index	120