

Contents

Acknowledgements	viii
Preface	ix
Introduction	1
1. Valois and Early Bourbons	7
Medieval inheritances	7
Decentralised corporations	8
Agents of centralisation	16
Collapse and recovery	18
Richelieu	23
The Fronde	29
2. Louis XIV Reassessed	35
Royal authority	35
The court of the Sun King – a cliché re-examined	38
Instruments of absolutism?	40
Patrons, brokers and clients	45
The élite	49
Instruments of self-government	52
3. A Highroad to Revolution?	61
Faction and ideology	62
Despotism or consent?	66
A formative minority	69
Louis XV and Louis XVI	71

The Myth of Absolutism

The wages of despotism	72
The dominance of court faction	74
4. France and England: Absolutism Versus Limited Monarchy?	80
Monarchs	80
Courtiers	85
Despots	89
Bureaucrats	91
Aristocrats	92
5. France and England: Absolutism Versus Parliamentary Liberties?	101
Parliaments, Estates and parlements	101
1688: the great divide?	108
Economic and fiscal policy	112
Civil liberties	114
6. A Theory of Absolutism?	120
Problems of evidence	120
The concept of the state	122
Theories of royal sovereignty	123
Bodin and absolutist theory	126
Two spheres of royal authority	128
Absolutist legislative and emergency power?	133
Absolutist versus constitutional ideologies?	137
Divine right absolutism?	141
Conclusions	143
7. Royal Prerogatives and their Context	148
Personal monarchy	148
Prerogatives and their justification	150
The main prerogatives	152
Agents of the prerogative	161
Prerogative enthroned	164
Prerogative dethroned	167
Conclusions	170

8. Liberties and Consent	176
Monarchs and despots	177
The rituals of consent	179
Estates: crushed or co-operating?	182
Conflict	186
Enlightened Despotism	191
9. Life-Cycle of a Myth	199
Birth	200
Childhood	201
Adolescence	203
Maturity	207
Senility	210
Glossary of Recurrent Terms	215
Bibliographical Essay	217
Appendix I: The Régusse clientele	227
Appendix II: The Oppède clientele	228
Appendix III: Major European monarchs 1461–1833	230
Map: Pre-revolutionary France: principal administrative, judicial and fiscal subdivisions	235
Index	236