

Contents

Acknowledgments	9
-----------------	---

Introduction	13
--------------	----

Part One: Theory

1. Philosophical Systems, Fictional Worlds, and Ideological Contestations	35
2. A Poetics of Probability: Systems of Causation within Fictional Worlds	61
3. Temporal Sequence, Causal Connection, and the Nature of Narrative: Disjunction and Convergence in Mrs. Dalloway and Pinter's Landscape	89

Part Two: Fabricating Destiny in Modern and Postmodern Narrative

4. Modernism's Unlikely Stories: Necessity, Chance, and Death in Nostromo , Light in August , and Invisible Man	111
5. Molloy and the Limits of Causality: Ontological Skepticism, Narrative Transgression, and Metafictional Paradox	128
6. Forgotten Causes: Non-Western Beliefs and Metaphysical Contestation in Modern Asian, Postcolonial, and U.S. Ethnic Narratives	139
7. Plotting against Probability: Tom Stoppard, Bharati Mukherjee, Angela Carter, and the Structure of Coincidence in Postmodern Narrative	157

Conclusion: Language, Interpretation, and Causality in Twentieth-Century Narrative	182
Notes	187
Works Cited	200
Index	215