

Contents

Preface	7
The Flair of Cologne & Kölsch – Or: why does Cologne have a Brauhaus Trail?	8
A Word of Welcome by Hans Sion	10
A Word of Welcome by Rudolf Päßgen	12

THE OLD TOWN – From Cologne Cathedral to Heumarkt 14

The Typical Cologne “Weetschaft” in the 19th Century	18
Roncalliplatz	22
Agrippina	24
“Excuse me: Köbes!” – The Kölsch Waiter	26
What’s on the Menu? – The “Kölsche Foderkaat” then and now	30
Around Cologne Cathedral	33
Cologne Cathedral	36
Around the Rathaus and the Alter Markt	41
The Praetorium	42
The Rathaus Tower and Rathaus	46
Around the Fischmarkt and Heumarkt	53
Kölsch Specialities	60

THE SOUTH – From the Bäche to Severinstor 62

The Kölsch Brauhaus – Function and Character	67
Kölsch Brauhaus Know-how	71
Brauhäuser in the “Vringsveedel”	77
Around St. Maria im Kapitol	81
Cologne’s Farms in the Middle Ages	86
St. Maria im Kapitol	91
Around St. Pantaleon	92
Parishes, Convents and Monasteries	96
Around St. Severin	102
The Reissdorf Brauhaus	105

THE NORTH –

From Eigelstein Gate to the Cathedral 114

Kölsch – a regional beer with tradition and future	120
The “classless” Brauhaus society	123
Declaration of love to the “kölsche Weetschaft”	127
Around Eigelstein Gate and St. Kunibert	131
The Kölscher Bauer	137
Weckschnapp, St. Kunibert and UKB	139
Around St. Ursula	143
St. Ursula and the 11,000 Virgins	151
Around St. Andreas and the Cathedral	158
St. Mariä Himmelfahrt and Marzellenstrasse	159
Around the Cathedral	163

THE WEST –

From Heumarkt to the Friesenviertel 168

Long live the Hausbrauerei!	175
Around Heumarkt and Griechenmarkt	176
The Ubiermonument	181
Hermann von Weinsberg	183
Around Neumarkt	186
The Richmodis Tour	187
Around the Friesenviertel	188