

Contents

1. INTRODUCTION	1
1.1 Military Institutions and Gender	6
The Gendered Division of Labor in Military Institutions 6 - Armed Civic Virtue 10 - Citizenship, Arms & Gender 11 - "Beautiful Souls" and Martial Citizens 15 - Women's Roles in Modern Wars 20 - "Total War" and the Mobilization of Women 27
1.2. Theoretical Concepts.....	34
Power and Agency 34 - Power Knowledge 36 - Strategic Apparatus 38 – Gender 39
1.3 Methodological Approaches.....	44
1.4 Literature	47
Historical Perspectives on the Military 48 - Studies on Gender and the Military 54 - Research on the WAAC and the WAC 60
1.5 Structure	62
2. ORGANIZATIONAL HISTORY OF THE WAAC/WAC	64
2.1 The WAAC and WAC Bills in Congress.....	64
2.2 Training.....	70
Basic Military Training 71 - Specialist Training 72
2.3 Policies and Regulations.....	73
2.4 Women Soldiers at Work.....	78
2.5 Overseas Service.....	81
2.6 Demobilization and Integration.....	85
2.7 Combat: Drawing the Line.....	91
3. CONSTRUCTING THE WOMEN SOLDIER THROUGH RECRUITING CAMPAIGNS, MEDIA COVERAGE AND PUBLIC RELATIONS.....	98
3.1 "Petticoat Army" or "Doughgirl Generalissimo".....	101
3.2 "Release a Man to Fight"	104

	Competition by Other Government Agencies 106 - Quality or Quantity: The Enlistment Standards 108 - The "toughest sales problem in the country" 109
3.3	"Self-Sacrifice" v. "Self-Interest": WAAC Recruiting.....	113
	The Motifs of Motherhood, the Family, and Home 114 - "I joined to serve my country...and I'm having the time of my life!" 118
3.4	The "Slander Campaign"	120
3.5	"Guilt" v. "Glamour": WAC Recruiting	134
	The All-States-Campaign 138 - The Attitude of Army Men 141 - "Fighting men and capable Wacs" 146 - "Comforting Our Wounded Heroes" 147
3.6	Public Relations	152
3.7	"Petticoat Soldiers": Ego-documents from the Field.....	161
	Camp Newspapers 161 Songs 166
4.	DRESS CODES: THE WAAC UNIFORM.....	174
4.1	Military Uniforms.....	174
4.2	Symbolic Aspects: Planning and Design of the Uniform	177
	The Pre-Planning Process 177 - A "neat and military appearance" 180 - Prêt-a-porter the Army Way 183
4.3.	Material Aspects	184
	Clothing for "Women's work" Put to the Practical Test 184 - Procurement and Supply 185 - The Overseas Experience 189
4.4	Publicity Crisis	191
4.5	Technologies of the Self	194
5.	"SUBJECTED TO THE COLORED RACE"	199
5.1	African American Wacs: Fighting on Two Fronts	199
	African Americans and the War Effort: Some Socio-Economic Aspects 199 - The Mobilization of African American Men 201 - Political Pressure for the Integration of African American Women 203 - Recruiting of African American Women 204 - Segregation in the WAC 207 - African American Wacs Overseas 215 - Assignment and Mal-Assignment 217 - Protest: Sit-Down Strike or Disobedience? 219
5.2	Japanese American Wacs	223
5.3	Puerto Rican Wacs	232
5.4	"First Class Citizenship"?	233

6. SEXUALITY	237
6.1 Normalizing Practices	237
The Regulation of Respectability: Double Standards for Men and Women 246 -
Social Control: VD Policies for Wacs, Civilian Women and Servicemen 247 -
Respectability and the Legitimacy of the Corps: The Code of Conduct and
WAC Regulations 250 - Regulating the Unrespectable: Pregnancy, Abortion,
Maternity and Marriage 251 - Patrolling Respectable Femininity: Anti-
Fraternization Policies 252
6.2 Homosexuality in the Armed Forces	257
The "True Pervert," the "Criminal Sodomist" and the "Intoxicated or
Curious" 257
6.3 Exclusionary Practices.....	262
WAC Regulations and Procedures: In Search of "undesirable traits and
habits" 262 - The "hierarchy of perversity": Class, Race, Practice,
Haircut 266 - Homosociality and Lesbian Agency: The Fort Oglethorpe
Investigation 269
7. CONCLUSION: THE WAC BETWEEN INSTITUTIONAL
INTEGRATION AND DISCURSIVE EXCLUSION	280
Acknowledgements	300
Abbreviations	302
Sources and Literature	304
A Note on Sources 304 - Archival Sources 308 - Published Sources 309 -
Secondary Works 321	