

Contents

List of Figures and Tables	x
Contributors	xi
Preface	xv
1 Introduction	1
Tope Omoniyi and Mukul Saxena
World Englishes from Colonisation to Globalization	3
The Global is Rooted and Contained within a Local History	8
World Englishes: A Community of Practice	9
2 Globalization and International Intelligibility	23
Paroo Nihalani
Introduction	23
Global Spread: Multiple International Identities	25
Educational Target: Standards and Models	34
Speech: A Collaborative Enterprise	37
Conclusion	39
Implications for the Classroom	41
3 From Chaos to Order: Language Change, Lingua Francas and World Englishes	45
Phyllis Ghim-Lian Chew
Introduction	45
From Chaos to Order: A Model of Language Change, LFs and WEs	49
The Liminal Periods	56
Caveats	59
Case Study: People's Republic of China (PRC)	59
Conclusion	66

4	English as a Lingua Franca in the Global Context: Interconnectedness, Variation and Change	72
	Martin Dewey and Jennifer Jenkins
	Introduction	72
	Misconceptions about English as a Lingua Franca	74
	Globalization and ELF	76
	ELF Research and Lingua Franca Variability	80
	Looking Ahead	86
5	World Englishes, Globalization and the Politics of Conformity	93
	Rakesh M. Bhatt
	Introduction	93
	Globalization: Concept and Consequences	94
	The Politics of Conformity and World Englishes	95
	World Englishes and Globalization	103
	Conclusion: Towards a Politics of Possibility	108
6	EFL: From ‘You Sound Like Dickens’ to International English	113
	Maria Georgieva
	Introduction	113
	EIL in the Context of Plurilingual Europe: A Snapshot of Problematic Issues	116
	EFL in Bulgaria: Changing Perspectives	120
	The Survey	122
	Discussion of Survey Results	123
	Conclusion	131
7	Glocalization of English in World Englishes: An Emerging Variety among Persian Speakers of English	137
	Farzad Sharifian
	Introduction	137
	The Case of Iran	138
	Cultural Conceptualizations	143
	Cultural Conceptualizations in World Englishes	144
	Cultural Conceptualizations among Persian Speakers of English	144
	Globalization and Standardization	153
	Concluding Remarks	155

8	Local Networks in the Formation and Development of West African English	159
	Augustin Simo Bobda
	Introduction	159
	Patterns of Transplantation of English in West Africa, and Sociolinguistic and Linguistic Correlates	160
	Sub-Regional Networks	164
	National and Sub-National Identities	166
	Conclusion	172
9	The English Language, Globalization and Latin America: Possible Lessons from the 'Outer Circle'	175
	Kanavillil Rajagopalan
	Introduction	175
	The Geopolitical Backdrop	176
	Globalization and the Role of English	178
	Dealing with English: Why Simply Shutting the Doors Is Not an Option	180
	English in Latin America: Possible Lessons from the 'Outer Circle'	185
	The Outer Circle Model	188
10	Rethinking Origins and Localization in Global Englishes	196
	Alastair Pennycook
	Introduction	196
	It's an Ancient Culture, with a New Name	196
	Globalization and Worldliness	197
	Hip-Hop Origins and Plurilithic English	201
	The Already Localness of English	206
11	Final Reflections: Globalization and World Englishes	211
	Mukul Saxena and Tope Omoniyi
	Introduction	211
	Globalization and World Englishes	211
	Future Directions: Conceptualizing WEs in 21st-Century Globalization	215
	Conclusion	226
	Index	230