

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	ix
Acknowledgements	x
Notes on Contributors	xi

Introduction

A European Memory?

Małgorzata Pakier and Bo Stråth

1

Part I Europe, Memory, Politics and History: A Normative and Theoretical Framing

Section 1 Normative Perspectives and Lines of Division of European Memory Constructions

Chapter 1

On 'European Memory': Some Conceptual and Normative Remarks

Jan-Werner Müller

25

Chapter 2

The Uses of History and the Third Wave of Europeanisation

Klas-Göran Karlsson

38

Chapter 3

Halecki Revisited: Europe's Conflicting Cultures of Remembrance

Stefan Troebst

56

Chapter 4	Iconic Remembering and Religious Icons: Fundamentalist Strategies in European Memory Politics? Wolfgang Kaschuba	64
 Section 2 Towards a Fluid Conceptualisation of Memory Constructs
Chapter 5	Culture, Politics, Palimpsest: Theses on Memory and Society Heidmarie Uhl	79
Chapter 6	Damnatio Memoriae and the Power of Remembrance: Reflections on Memory and History Frederick Whitling	87
Chapter 7	Seeing Dark and Writing Light: Photography Approaching Dark and Obscure Histories James Kaye	98
 Part II Remembering Europe's Dark Pasts: Four Fields of Commemoration
 Section 3 Remembering the Second World War
Chapter 8	Remembering the Second World War in Western Europe, 1945–2005 Stefan Berger	119
Chapter 9	Practices and Politics of Second World War Remembrance: (Trans-)National Perspectives from Eastern and South-Eastern Europe Heike Karge	137
Chapter 10	A Victory Celebrated: Danish and Norwegian Celebrations of the Liberation Clemens Maier	147

Section 4 Towards a Europeanisation of the Commemoration of the Holocaust

- Chapter 11*
Remembering Europe's Heart of Darkness: Legacies of the Holocaust in Post-war European Societies
Cecilie Felicia Stokholm Banke 163
- Chapter 12*
Holocaust Remembrance and Restitution of Jewish Property in the Czech Republic and Poland after 1989
Stanisław Tyszka 175
- Chapter 13*
A Europeanisation of the Holocaust Memory? German and Polish
Reception of the Film Europa, Europa
Małgorzata Pakier 191
- Chapter 14*
Italian Commemoration of the Shoah: A Survivor-Oriented Narrative and Its Impact on Politics and Practices of Remembrance
Ruth Nattermann 204
- Section 5 Coming to Terms with Europe's Communist Past*
- Chapter 15*
Managing the History of the Past in the Former Communist States
Arfon Rees 219
- Chapter 16*
Eurocommunism: Commemorating Communism in Contemporary Eastern Europe
Péter Apor 233
- Chapter 17*
The Memory of the Dead Body
Senadin Musabegović 247
- Chapter 18*
Neither Help nor Pardon? Communist Pasts in Western Europe
Kevin Morgan 260

Section 6 Coming to Terms with Europe's Colonial Past

Chapter 19

Politics of Remembrance, Colonialism and the Algerian War of Independence in France

Jan Jansen

275

Chapter 20

Memory Politics and the Use of History: Finnish-Speaking
Minorities at the North Calotte

Lars Elenius

294

Conclusion

Nightmares or Daydreams? A Postscript on the Europeanisation of Memories

Konrad H. Jarausch

309

References

321

Index

347