

CONTENTS

Introduction: Understanding Narrative	1
James Phelan and Peter J. Rabinowitz
1. Strolling, Touring, Cruising: Counter-Disciplinary Narrative and the Loiterature of Travel	17
Ross Chambers
2. Generic and Doctrinal Politics in the Proletarian Bildungsroman	43
Barbara Foley
3. Narratives of Bourgeois Subjectivity in Mozart's Prague Symphony	65
Susan McClary
4. The Ethics of Forms: Taking Flight with The Wings of the Dove	99
Wayne C. Booth
5. Picturing Spectatorship	136
Judith Mayne
6. "How Did You Know He Licked His Lips?": Second Person Knowledge and First Person Power in The Maltese Falcon	157
Peter J. Rabinowitz

Contents

7. Naturalizing Molloy Thomas G. Pavel	178
8. Travel Narrative and Imperialist Vision Mary Louise Pratt	199
9. Present Tense Narration, Mimesis, the Narrative Norm, and the Positioning of the Reader in Waiting for the Barbarians James Phelan	222
10. Dialogue, Discourse, Theft, and Mimicry: Charlotte Brontë Rereads William Makepeace Thackeray Elizabeth Langland	246
Contributors	273
Index	277