

Contents

Contributors	vii
Acknowledgements	x
1. Introduction: Rereading Ancient Slavery Richard Alston	1
2. Odysseus as Slave: The Ritual of Domination and Social Death in Homeric Society Patrice Rankine	34
3. The Paradigms of Execution: Managing Slave Death from Homer to Virginia Leanne Hunnings	51
4. Some Ancient Greek Images of Slavery William G. Thalmann	72
5. Greek Representations of the Slave Body: A Conflict of Ideas? Kelly L. Wrenhaven	97
6. Slavery and Freedom in Euripides' Cyclops Boris Nikolsky	121
7. Navigating Race, Class, Polis and Empire: The Place of Empirical Analysis in Aristotle's Account of Natural Slavery S. Sara Monoson	133
8. Family, Slavery and Subversion in Menander's Epitrepontes Laura Proffitt	152
9. The Slave as Minimal Addition in Latin Literature William Fitzgerald	175
10. Slave Agency and Resistance in Martial Deborah Kamen	192
11. Playing Ball with Zeus: Strategies in Reading Ancient Slavery through Dreams Edith Hall	204
Index	229