

CONTENTS

Editor's foreword	ix
PART I SCOTTISH LITERATURE
1 Scottish Literature and the Challenge of Theory Douglas Gifford and Neil McMillan	3
Exemplars 1-4	25
2 Choosing and Using Scottish Texts James N. Alison	31
Exemplars 5-9	46
PART II SCOTTISH LANGUAGE
3 Language in Scotland Today George Sutherland	57
Exemplars 10-13	63
4 Gaelic - The Senior Partner Ronald W. Renton	70
Exemplars 14-18	76
5 The Scots Language in the Schuil John Hodgart	84
Exemplars 19-22	90
6 Learning Me My Language Morna R. Fleming	97
Exemplars 23-26	100
7 Contemporary Scottish Fiction in the Upper School Anne Donovan	108
Exemplars 27-30	111
PART III THE SCOTTISH SYLLABUS
8 Beyond the Cringe: Using the Exemplars and Planning Programmes Alan MacGillivray	119
Exemplars 31-36	133

PART IV STAGES OF THE SCHOOL
9	Confronting Dissonances: Scottish Literature and Language in the Primary and Early Secondary School 145 Gordon Gibson and Anne Gifford Exemplars 37–40 152
10	Identity, Culture and Literature: Scottish Language and Literature in the Middle Stages 161 David Drever Exemplars 41–45 167
11	Re-reading Scottish Literature: Critical Issues in the Upper Secondary Stages 175 James McGonigal Exemplars 46–50 185
APPENDICES
A	Writing Workshops 197 Exemplars 51–53
B	Sources of Texts in Exemplars 202
C	Extracts 206
	Index of Exemplars 217
	Notes on Contributors 221