INTRODUCTION

Chapter 1. An Overview: Advances in Belief in a Just World
Theory and Methods .....	1
Melvin J. Lerner and Leo Montada

ADVANCES IN RESEARCH ON OBSERVERS' REACTIONS TO VICTIMS

Chapter 2. Immanent Justice and Ultimate Justice: Two Ways of
Believing in Justice .....	9
Jürgen Maes
1. Theoretical Background .....	9
1.1. Belief in a Just World: Experimental and Survey Studies .....	9
1.2. A Suggested Differentiation between Two Variants of Belief
in a Just World .....	12
2. Methods .....	13
2.1. Construction of a Questionnaire .....	13
2.2. Sample .....	14
3. Results .....	14
3.1. Dimensional Analyses .....	14
3.2. Immanent and Ultimate Justice: Validation and
Differentiation of Two Scales .....	15
4. Summary .....	38

Chapter 3. BJW and Self-Efficacy in Coping with Observed Victimization: Results from a Study about Unemployment .....	41
Changiz Mohiyeddini and Leo Montada
1. Hypotheses .....	43
2. Methods .....	44
2.1. Subjects and Procedure .....	44
2.2. Justice Related Scales .....	44
2.3. Factor and Reliability Analysis of the Scales to Measure BJW, SEJW, and HJW .....	45
2.4. Prosocial and "Antisocial" Responses to Victims .....	46
2.5. Factor and Reliability Analysis of the Measures for BVSI, WFI, and WPO .....	47
3. Results .....	47
3.1. Correlations between BJW, HJW, and SEJW .....	47
3.2. Intercorrelations between GBJW, HJW, and SEJW and BVSI, WFI, WPO, and SYMP .....	47
3.3. Two-Way Interactions of GBJW and SEJW in Predicting Sympathy (SYMP), BVSI, and Willingness to Help the Victims (WFI, WPO) .....	48
3.4. Estimation of Unique Effects of GBJW, SEJW, and HJW .....	49
3.5. Membership in a Social or Political Organization (MSPO) ....	51
4. Discussion .....	52
Chapter 4. How Do Observers of Victimization Preserve Their Belief in a Just World Cognitively or Actionally? Findings from a Longitudinal Study .....	55
Barbara Reichle, Angela Schneider, and Leo Montada
1. Research Questions .....	55
2. Reactions to the Disadvantaged: Compensation versus Cognitive Restoration to Maintain the Belief in a Just World .....	57
3. The Study .....	58
3.1. Subjects .....	58
3.2. Instruments .....	58
3.3. Just World Scales .....	59
3.4. Existential Guilt Inventory .....	59
3.5. Willingness to Act Prosocially Inventory .....	59
4. Results .....	60
5. Discussion .....	62

INNOVATIVE EXTENSIONS OF BJW AND SELF-EXPERIENCED INJUSTICES

Chapter 5. Individual Differences in the Belief in a Just World and Responses to Personal Misfortune .....	65
Carolyn L. Hafer and James M. Olson
1. Beliefs in a Just World and Responses to Misfortune .....	66
2. Summary of Guiding Research Questions .....	68
2.1. Study 1: Beliefs in a Just World and Responses to a Laboratory-Induced Deprivation .....	69
2.2. Study 2: Beliefs in a Just World and Women's Responses to Their Job Situation .....	72
2.3. Study 3: Beliefs in a Just World and Student's Responses to Grades .....	76
3. Conclusions and Suggestions for Future Research .....	81
3.1. Do Strong Believers in a Just World Perceive Their Own Negative Outcomes as Less Unfair Than Weak Believers? ....	81
3.2. Do Strong Believers in a Just World Experience Less Discontent (i.e., Emotions Related to a Sense of Injustice Such as Anger and Resentment) When Confronted with Personal Misfortune Than Weak Believers? .....	82
3.3. Are Beliefs in a Just World Predictive of Other Emotional Responses to Personal Misfortune? .....	82
3.4. Are Individual Differences in the Belief in a Just World Associated with Particular Behavioural Reactions to One's Own Negative Outcomes? .....	83
4. Conclusion .....	83
Chapter 6. Belief in a Just World, Well-Being, and Coping with an Unjust Fate .....	87
Claudia Dalbert
1. Just World Belief and Well-Being: The Direct Relationship .....	89
2. Just World Belief and Well-Being: The Indirect Relationship .....	94
2.1. Causal Self-Attributions .....	95
2.2. Why Me? .....	98
3. Discussion .....	100
Chapter 7. Belief in a Just World and Right-Wing Authoritarianism as Moderators of Perceived Risk .....	107
Alan J. Lambert, Thomas Burroughs, and Alison L. Chasteen
1. Belief in a Just World and Perceptions of Risk .....	109
2. Right-Wing Authoritarianism and Perceptions of Risk .....	111

3. Just World Beliefs and Right-Wing Authoritarianism Compared ..	112
4. Two Empirical Investigations .....	113
4.1. A Working Theoretical Framework .....	116
4.2. An Additional Test .....	118
5. Looking Ahead: Theoretical Implications and Issues to be Addressed in Future Work .....	120
5.1. Single versus Dual Influence Models of Perceived Risk .....	121
5.2. Aren't There Other Personality Variables (Aside from BJW and RWA) that Could Moderate Risk? .....	122
5.3. Are There Any Conditions under Which BJW Moderates Perceived Risk Independent of Other Personality Variables? ..	122
6. Concluding Comments .....	123
 Chapter 8. The Belief in a Just World and Willingness to Accommodate among Married and Dating Couples .....	127
Isaac M. Lipkus and Victor Bissonnette
1. The Belief in a Just World and Willingness to Accommodate .....	128
2. Relationship between the Belief in a Just World and Accommodation among Married Couples .....	131
3. Relationship between the Belief in a Just World and Accommodation among Dating Couples .....	134
4. Conclusions and Future Directions .....	136

ANALYTIC PERSPECTIVES FOR ASSESSING THE CONSTRUCT: BELIEF IN A JUST WORLD

Chapter 9. Measuring the Beliefs in a Just World .....	141
Adrian Furnham
1. Introduction .....	141
2. Two Measurement Approaches .....	142
3. The Development of Trait Measures .....	143
3.1. Identification of the Phenomena .....	144
3.2. Replication of the Effect .....	144
3.3. The Development of a Self-Report Measure .....	145
3.4. Validation of the Measure .....	146
3.5. Factor Analysis Work and Multi-Dimensionality .....	146
3.6. Multiple, Multi-Dimensional Measures .....	147
3.7. Doubts about the Original Concept .....	147
3.8. Acceptance and "Text-Bookization" .....	148
4. The Rubin and Peplau BJW Scale .....	149
5. The Development of Other Measures .....	151

6. BJW Beliefs: Fundamental and Universal .....	154
7. Future Developments .....	158
 Chapter 10. Eight Stages in the Development of Research on the Construct of Belief in a Just World? .....	163
Jürgen Maes
1. A Stage Sequence Proposed by Furnham (1990) .....	164
2. Development of Just World Research .....	165
2.1. Stage 1: Identification of a Phenomenon .....	166
2.2. Stage 2: Replication of the Effect .....	167
2.3. Stage 3: The Development of a Self-Report Measure .....	169
2.4. Stage 4: Validation of the Measure .....	169
2.5. Stage 5: Factor Analytic Work and Multi-Dimensionality .....	172
2.6. Stage 6: Multiple Multi-Dimensional Measures .....	174
2.7. Stage 7: Doubts about the Original Concept .....	175
2.8. Stage 8: Acceptance and 'Text-Bookization' .....	176
3. Conclusions .....	178
 Chapter 11. Methodological Strategies in Research to Validate Measures of Belief in a Just World .....	187
Manfred J. Schmitt
1. History and Aims of This Contribution .....	187
2. Synergetic Interaction of the Justice Motive and Belief in a Just World .....	189
3. Belief in a Just World versus Centrality of Justice as Indicators of the Justice Motive .....	191
4. Delusion, Knowledge, and Justification Components of Belief in a Just World .....	191
4.1. Empirical Distribution of Belief in a Just World .....	192
4.2. Group Differences in Belief in a Just World .....	193
4.3. Separating Belief in Justice and Belief in Control .....	194
5. Correlations among Measures with Discriminant Content Validity .....	195
5.1. Experimental Investigation of Discriminant Construct Validity .....	197
6. Possible Meanings of Low Belief in a Just World .....	201
7. Combining Belief in a Just World with Preferences for Distributive Justice Principles .....	204
8. Methods for Clarifying the Correlations between Belief in a Just World and Political Conservatism .....	206
9. Concluding Considerations and Suggestions .....	207

LOOKING BACK AND THEN FORWARD TO THE NEXT GENERATION OF RESEARCH ON BJW

Chapter 12. Belief in a Just World: A Hybrid of Justice Motive and Self-Interest? .....	217
Leo Montada
1. BJW: The Justice Motive Blended with Self-Interest .....	217
2. Facets of BJW .....	220
3. Studies on BJW .....	221
3.1. GBJW and Phenomena of Blaming the Victim for Self-Infliction (BVSI) .....	222
3.2. Area-Specific Assessment of BJW: SPBJW and BVSI .....	228
3.3. BJW and Preferences for Principles of Distributive Justice ....	229
3.4. Empathy, Identification, and Similarity of Fate .....	232
3.5. BJW and the Defense of Self-Interest .....	234
3.6. BJW as a Personal Resource in Case of Victimization .....	240
4. Summary and Outlook .....	241
Chapter 13. The Two Forms of Belief in a Just World: Some Thoughts on Why and How People Care about Justice .....	247
Melvin J. Lerner
1. BJW: Child's Fairy Tale or "Fundamental Delusion" .....	248
1.1. Everyone Knows BJW Is a Childish Fantasy .....	248
1.2. "Normalizing" Injustices Means No Injustice Has Occurred ...	249
1.3. Religious Beliefs Provide Ultimate Justice .....	250
1.4. Adult's Irrational Self-Blame .....	251
2. How Explain "Irrational Self-Blame"? .....	252
2.1. Anomalous Overriding of Rational Self-Interest .....	252
2.2. Control Motive .....	253
2.3. Correspondence Bias .....	253
2.4. Persistence of Developmentally Earlier Blaming Process ....	253
3. Two Forms of the Justice Motive and Belief in a Just World .....	254
3.1. Rational, Normatively Conventional .....	254
3.2. Experiential Counternormative Scripts .....	255
3.3. Experimental Example of Two Forms of Reactions to Victims .....	255
3.4. Contemporary Theoretical Models of Two Underlying Processes .....	257
4. Methodological and Theoretical Implications .....	259
4.1. Another Experimental Example: People Care Much More about Justice Than They Think .....	259
4.2. Justice as Rational Self-Interest .....	259

4.3. Justice as the Inevitable Consequence of the Human Endowment and a Stable Environment .....	260
4.4. How Does This Theory of Justice Differ from Rational Self-Interest? .....	262
4.5. Where Do Stable Individual Differences Fit in This Theory? ..	263
4.6. What about the Use of Questionnaire Research Methods in Studying the Two Forms of BJW? .....	264
4.7. Once Again: How Important Is (BJW) the Justice Motive in Peoples' Lives? .....	265
5. Summary .....	267
