

Contents

List of Figures	x
List of Tables	xi
Series Introduction	xiii
Acknowledgements	xv
Introduction	xvii
PART 1 — YOUR ENGLISH LANGUAGE LEARNER TONY ERBEN	1
1.1 — Orientation	3
1.2 — The Process of English Language Learning and What to Expect	5
Principle 1: Give ELLs Many Opportunities to Read, to Write, to Listen to, and to Discuss Oral and Written English Texts Expressed in a Variety of Ways	6
Principle 2: Draw Attention to Patterns of English Language Structure	7
Principle 3: Give ELLs Classroom Time to Use their English Productively.	8
Principle 4: Give ELLs Opportunities to Notice their Errors and to Correct their English.	8
Principle 5: Construct Activities that Maximize Opportunities for ELLs to Interact with Others in English	10
1.3 — Deciding on the Best ESOL Program	13
1.4 — Teaching for English Language Development.	18

1.5 — Not All ELLs are the Same	22
Stages of Cultural Adjustment	24
Cultural Practices at School	25
1.6 — Culturally Responsive Pedagogy	27
1.7 — Not All Parents are the Same: Home–School Communication	30
Ideas: On Fostering Access	31
Ideas: On Fostering Approachability	31
Ideas: On Achieving Good Follow-Through	32
1.8 — English Language Learners with Special Needs	33
Conclusion	36
PART 2 — PRINCIPLES OF TEACHING AND LEARNING IN THE ARTS	37
2.1 — The Nature of Artistic Thinking	39
2.2 — Qualities Instilling Artistic Thinking	41
2.3 — The Primacy of Creativity and Relational Pedagogy to Arts Instruction	43
2.4 — Arts-Focused ESOL Research	45
Importance of Affirming Diversity	46
Need for Mainstream Teacher Education for ELLs	46
Value of Arts Education (Visual Arts, Music, Drama, and Dance) to Support Students’ Language Development	46
Value of Arts Education (Visual Arts, Music, Drama, and Dance) to Enhance Access and Learning about Students’ Experiences of Diversity	48
2.5 — Enacting an Arts Curriculum	54
Curriculum as Artistic Medium for Teachers and Students	54
Assessment as Artistic Learning’s Accompaniment	56
Conclusion	58
PART 3 — TEACHING THE ARTS—VISUAL ARTS, MUSIC, DRAMA, AND DANCE	59
3.1 — Introduction	61
3.2 — Visual Arts Experiences to Engage ELLs Alongside All Learners	70
Visual Arts, Theme I: “Total Control Can Be the Death of a Work”	71
Visual Arts, Theme II: “Responsive Matters of Perception”	78
Visual Arts, Theme III: “Examined Lives in Relation—A Fusion Dinner Party”	89
3.3 — Music Experiences to Engage ELLs Alongside All Learners	103
Music, Theme I: “Total Control Can Be the Death of a Work”	104
Music, Theme II: “Responsive Matters of Perception”	110
Music, Theme III: “Examined Lives in Relation—A Fusion Dinner Party”	120
3.4 — Drama Experiences to Engage ELLs Alongside All Learners	129
Drama, Theme I: “Total Control Can Be the Death of a Work”	130
Drama, Theme II: “Responsive Matters of Perception”	139
Drama, Theme III: “Examined Lives in Relation—A Fusion Dinner Party”	147

3.5 — Dance Experiences to Engage ELLs Alongside All Learners	156
Dance, Theme I: “Total Control Can Be the Death of a Work”	157
Dance, Theme II: “Responsive Matters of Perception”	166
Dance, Theme III: “Examined Lives in Relation—A Fusion Dinner Party”	172
PART 4 — RESOURCES	183
Internet Resources for Teachers	185
Professional Organizations	185
Museums/Galleries	186
Journals	187
Research Centers and Institutes	188
Classroom Teaching Resources	190
Culturally Responsive Teaching	199
Clip Art and Image Banks	200
Multimedia	200
Print and Associated Resources for Teachers	202
Culturally Sensitive/Responsive Pedagogy	202
Cultural and Newcomer Information	203
Teaching Through the Arts	203
Teaching English Language	205
ESOL Textbooks	207
Home–School Collaboration	207
Audio-Visual Materials	207
Publishers	208
Resources for Students	209
Dictionaries	209
Online Dictionaries	210
Online Translation Services	210
Internet Sites	210
Print Materials that Support English Language and Cultural Learning	212
Audio-Visual Materials	213
Glossary	215
Notes	217
References	219
Index	231