

Table of Contents

Introduction	7
Wiater Werner & Videsott Gerda
New theoretical perspectives in multilingualism research: Multilingualism as a construct determined by different uses	9
Wiater Werner
Constructivism and Language Acquisition	21
Videsott Gerda, Herrnberger Bärbel, Schilly Edgar, Grothe Jo, Hoenig Klaus, Wiater Werner, Spitzer Manfred & Kiefer Markus
The complex measurement of language(s)	35
Rinker Tanja & Kiefer Markus
The Cognitive Neuroscience of Multilingualism	43
Manschke Doris
Mental representations, mental imagery and language: An overview	63
Tracy Rosemarie
Knowledge societies in need of knowledge	89
Pallotti Gabriele, Ferrari Stefania & Nuzzo Elena
A systematic procedure for assessing communicative competence	113
Franceschini Rita
The potentiality of Multilingualism: Four Scenarios for a Multilingual Country	135
Baur Siegfried & Larcher Dietmar
Multilingualism revisited. New Frontiers in Central European Language Education	155

Fäcke Christiane
Language and dialect between linguistic purism and plurilingualism	171
Dal Negro Silvia
Notes on the Mother Tongue ideology: Evidence from multilingual environments	185
Reissner Christina
Language(s), plurilingualism and intercomprehension	203
Darquennes Jeroen
Aspects of individual and societal multilingualism in the language policy of the European Commission: A preliminary analysis	219
Contributors	243