

Contents

1 Promoting Professional Learning: Integrating Experiences in University and Practice Settings	1
Stephen Billett and Amanda Henderson
2 Integrating Experiences in Workplace and University Settings: A Conceptual Perspective	21
Stephen Billett
Part I Integrating Practice and University Experiences: Curriculum and Pedagogy Practices
3 Preparing Nurses and Engaging Preceptors	43
Jennifer M. Newton, Stephen Billett, Brian Jolly, and Cherene Ockerby
4 Targeted Preparation for Clinical Practice	59
Elizabeth Molloy and Jenny Keating
5 Optimising the Follow-through Experience for Midwifery Learning	83
Linda Sweet and Pauline Glover
6 A Considered Curriculum for Preparing Human Services Practitioners: Structuring Circles of Learning and Change	101
Jennifer Cartmel
7 Reflective Learning Groups for Student Nurses	119
Jennifer M. Newton
8 Maximising the Integration of Medical and Nursing Students in Clinical Learning Environments: An Australian Perspective	131
Amanda Henderson and Heather Alexander
9 Career Development Learning Frameworks for Work-Integrated Learning	149
Peter McIlveen, Sally Brooks, Anna Lichtenberg, Martin Smith, Peter Torjul, and Joanne Tyler

Part II Institutional Practices and Imperatives

10 Scoping Work-Integrated Learning Purposes, Practices and Issues	169
Deborah Peach and Natalie Gamble
11 Health-Service Organisation, Clinical Team Composition and Student Learning	187
Maree O'Keefe, Sue McAllister, and Ieva Stupans
12 Promoting Professional Learning: Individual and Institutional Practices and Imperatives	201
Amanda Henderson
Name Index	215
Subject Index	217