

Contents

List of Figures	vii
Notes on Contributors	ix
Series Editor's Preface
"X"	xiii
Foreword by Lisa Duggan	xxv
Introduction
Hegemony and Heteronormativity: Revisiting 'The Political' in Queer Politics	1
María do Mar Castro Varela, Nikita Dhawan and Antke Engel
1	Revisiting Contingency, Hegemony and Universality	25
	Randi Gressgård
2	From the 'Heterosexual Matrix' to a 'Heteronormative Hegemony': Initiating a Dialogue between Judith Butler and Antonio Gramsci about Queer Theory and Politics	43
	Gundula Ludwig
3	Tender Tensions – Antagonistic Struggles – Becoming-Bird: Queer Political Interventions into Neoliberal Hegemony	63
	Antke Engel
4	Normative Dilemmas and the Hegemony of Counter- Hegemony	91
	María do Mar Castro Varela / Nikita Dhawan
5	How Sam Became a Father, Became a Citizen: Scripts of Neoliberal Inclusion of Disability	121
	Kateřina Kolářová
6	Signifying Theory_Politics/Queer?	143
	Susanne Lummerding

7	The Pleasures of Compliance: Domination and Compromise Within BDSM Practice Volker Woltersdorff	169
	Index	189