

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments .....	11
Introduction .....	13
Chapter 1
Chronological listing of ‘big apple’ quotes – all the earliest racing ones, 1921ff. are from John J. Fitz Gerald. The two key articles are Feb. 18, 1924 and Dec. 1, 1926 .....	17
Chapter 2
Tracing the development of the Big Apple dance .....	47
Mae West’s 12/12/1937 radio skit in which she scandalously (for that era) said: ‘I feel like doin’ a big apple.’ .....	56
Chapter 3
Comments on some potentially misleading ‘Big Apple’ attestations from chapter 1 .....	59
1. Edward Martin’s 1909 mention of ‘the big apple’; real meaning is ‘overweening big shot’ .....	59
Testimony of silence that ‘Big Apple’ was not a sobriquet of NYC prior to the 1930’s .....	60
a. 1903 article on opening of NY racing season bubbles with excitement, but there’s no ‘big apple’ .....	60
b. 1904–1911 newspaper articles on city nicknames: no ‘Big Apple’ for NYC .....	61
c. 1918 NY Tribune article on city nicknames: no ‘Big Apple’ for NYC ..	61
d. No Big Apple ‘NYC’ in a 1928 article on the glories of NYC .....	61
e. No Big Apple ‘NYC’ in Damon Runyon’s column ‘Our Town,’ 1930ff. in the New York Press .....	62
Other examples of ‘big apple’ = something special/big shot .....	63
2. Walter Winchell’s 1927 ‘Big Apple’ attestation; real meaning is ‘the big time’ and refers specifically to Broadway as the goal of aspiring actors ...	64
3. ‘The Big Apple’ – 1922, 1928 refer to NYC; another (1920) refers to Los Angeles. Real meaning in all these cases is probably ‘the big time’ ..	66

4. 1920 ‘big apple’ (= world) in Kansas newspaper .....	68
Chapter 4
Apples regarded as very special .....	71
Chapter 5
John J. Fitz Gerald as the key figure in popularizing the big apple ‘NYC racetracks,’ 1921ff .....	79
1. Popik comments on the 1926 column .....	80
2. May 5, 1992 letter from Barry Popik clarifying Fitz Gerald’s first hearing the big apple almost to the day .....	81
3. Popik’s 2/28/1993 letter summarizing the chronology of Fitz Gerald’s big apple usage .....	81
4. A few more chronological notes on John J. Fitz Gerald .....	82
5. Obituaries of John J. Fitz Gerald .....	83
6. Pre-1928: Fitz Gerald himself usually avoided the big apple – the spirit was willing but the time was not yet ripe .....	85
7. A surprise: After 1928 Fitz Gerald and The Morning Telegraph backed away from the big apple .....	87
Chapter 6
Role of Charles Gillett, 1971 .....	91
1. Obituary in NY Times , Dec. 6, 1995 .....	91
2. Gilbert Tauber (former colleague) says Gillett was planning the Big Apple revival already in 1963 .....	92
3. Charles Gillett: T-shirts helped in ‘Big Apple’ revival .....	93
4. More background information on Charles Gillett .....	94
Chapter 7
Big Apple incorrect etymologies .....	99
1. The Big Apple does not derive from Aqueduct Race Track’s sobriquet (The Big A) .....	99
2. The Big Apple does not derive from Spanish ‘Manzana Principal’ .....	101
3. Rejecting the Big Apple prostitution etymology .....	104
4. Damon Runyon did not publicize The Big Apple .....	112
5. Rejecting Big Onion as a standard sobriquet of NYC and as a borrowing from Irish anonn ‘beyond’ .....	113
6. Alain Locke’s supposed ca. 1919 quote ‘Harlem is the precious fruit of the Garden of Eden, the big apple’ .....	117

7. Jazz musician Fletcher Henderson (1879–1952) did not popularize The Big Apple (NYC) .....	123
8. The Big Apple did not derive from the stops along the Erie Canal being designated as apples (1825–1850), with NYC being the biggest one .....	125
 Chapter 8
Summary and general observations .....	127
 Appendix .....	131
1. Material from James T. Maher concerning the jazz use of The (Big) Apple .....	131
2. Steig 1937: Best jazz in the world being played in Harlem. And how Benny Goodman integrated his band .....	135
3. 11/3/1988 letter from Eric P. Hamp .....	135
4. 2/21/1978 letter from David Maurer .....	136
5. Barry Popik’s efforts to honor John J. Fitz Gerald with a renamed street corner and a landmark plaque .....	137
 References .....	143
 Index .....	169