

Brief Table of Contents

List of abbreviations	xi
Preface	xiv
Guided tour	xvii
Technology to enhance learning and teaching	xix
Acknowledgements	xxii
The authors	xxiv
PART 1 History, ideologies and methods	1
1 Recognizing the development imperative	3
2 Development: the story over fifty years	31
3 Ideologies and methods in development economics	55
4 Macroeconomic theories of economic growth	77
5 The development process: landmark theories	107
PART 2 Governance	133
6 Governance questions 1: corruption	135
7 Governance questions 2: public-sector scope, enhancement and reform	165
8 The role and potential of civil society	183
PART 3 Central global questions	199
9 Globalization: trade, trade policy, international economic relations	201
10 Poverty, equity and well-being	247
11 Sustainable development, environmental evaluation, natural resources	285
12 Stabilization in developing countries	331
PART 4 Real resources and sectoral considerations	361
13 Population and labour supply	363
14 Migration and urbanization	403
15 Gender and development	433
16 Agricultural development, food supply and rural transformation	447
17 Industrialization and development	479
18 Building technological capability	509
PART 5 Finance	533
19 Domestic finance	535
20 Elaboration of economic project-appraisal	561
21 Foreign aid	583
22 Loans and debt	619
23 Foreign direct investment	635
24 International migration and remittances	669
PART 6 Conclusion	689
25 Guidelines, judgements and possibilities	691
References	711
Index	747