

Contents

Abbreviations	xv
Note	xvii
List of Maps	xviii
1. Introduction	1
Arabs and antiquity	1
Jafnid or Ghassān: Arab elites	3
Rationale and background	7
Sources and methodological approach	14
Geography	26
Rome and the Sasanians	29
2. Aspects of Arab Christianisation
in Late Antiquity	34
Introduction	34
Part One: Processes, consequences, and subtexts of Christianisation	35
Part Two: The Jafnids and Naṣrids between the Romans and Sasanians	49
Conclusion	71
3. Empires, Clients, and Politics	72
Introduction	72
Arabs and empires	73
Arabs, the west, and the east	80
The Ḥujrids and the Naṣrids in Arabia and Mesopotamia	84
The Jafnids and Ghassān	95
Damascus and Ḥaurān	99
Settlement and sedentarisation?	108
Clients and allies	116
Conclusion: Between state and tribe	124
4. Arabic, Culture, and Ethnicity	128
Introduction	128
Language, communal membership, and identity: the problem	129

Old Arabic and ethnic identity	135
The Nabataean kingdom and Nemāra	138
The sixth century	144
The oral tradition	153
Bedouin identities and the question of Ishmael	162
Conclusion	170
5. Between Empires: The Jafnids, the Naşrids, and Late Antiquity	173
Introduction	173
Rome and the Jafnids after 582	174
The Naşrids at the end of the sixth century	184
The economy and the Justinianic plague	186
Conclusion	193
6. The Jafnids and History in East and West	194
Introduction	194
The Jafnids and history in east and west	194
Late Antiquity and after	199
Conclusion	210
Bibliography	213
Abbreviations	213
Primary Sources	214
Secondary Literature	217
Index	245