

Contents

Preface	page xiii
Introduction	1
1. The Struggle: Disability Rights versus Bioethics	12
I. An Introduction to and Short History of the Disability-Rights Community	15
II. Introduction to and a Brief History of Bioethics	29
2. Clashing Perspectives and a Call for Reconciliation	47
I. Perspectives and Teachings in Bioethics	49
II. Perspectives and Teachings from the Disability-Rights Community	57
III. Points of Friction	67
IV. A Call for Peace	68
3. Infancy	72
I. The Case of Sydney Miller	78
A. Views from the Disability Community	86
B. Views from Bioethics	91
II. The Case of Emilio Gonzalez	105
A. Views from the Disability Community	109
B. Views from Bioethics	119
III. Observations	126

Contents

4.	Childhood	137
	I. Lee Larson's Boys	140
	A. Views from the Deaf and Disability Communities	146
	B. Views from Bioethics	153
	II. The Case of Ashley X	161
	A. Views from the Disability Community	169
	B. Views from Bioethics	173
	III. Observations	183
	Addendum: National Association for the Deaf Position Statement on Cochlear Implants	188
5.	The Reproductive Years	194
	I. The Case of Valerie N.	201
	A. Views from Bioethics and the Disability Community	206
	II. The Case of Bob and Julie Egan	214
	A. Views from Bioethics and the Disability Community	220
	III. Observations	230
6.	The Adult Years	237
	I. Mary's Case	241
	A. Views from the Disability Community	242
	B. Views from Bioethics	244
	II. The Case of Larry McAfee	245
	A. Views from the Disability Community	248
	B. Views from Bioethics	253
	III. The Case of Scott Matthews	258
	A. Views from the Disability Community	262
	B. Views from Bioethics	263
	IV. Observations	266

Contents

7.	The End of Life	271
	I. The Case of Theresa Schiavo	273
	II. The Case of Sheila Pouliot	281
	III. Views from the Disability Community	289
	IV. Views from Bioethics	295
	V. Observations	298
	A. Constitutional Implications	300
	B. Discrimination	305
8.	Toward a Disability-Conscious Bioethics	315
	I. Working toward Reconciliation	317
	A. Listening and Understanding	318
	B. Acknowledging Fears, Biases, and Alliances	327
	C. Unearthing Common Ground	329
	II. Taking Action: Developing Disability-Consciousness in Bioethics	331
	A. Principles	333
	B. Protecting Against Abuse: The Role of Process	342
	III. Disability-Conscious Bioethics in Action	344
	A. Disability in Infancy: Sydney Miller and Emilio Gonzalez	345
	B. Disability in Childhood: Lee Larson's Boys, Ashley X	350
	C. The Reproductive Years: William Peace, Valerie, and the Egans	356
	D. The Adult Years: Mary, Larry McAfee, and Scott Matthews	357
	E. End-of-Life Decisions: Sheila Pouliot and Terri Schiavo	361
	IV. Conclusion – and a Call to Action	362
	Index	367