

Contents

List of Figures	vii
Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction: A “Bit of Orient Set Down in the Heart of a Western Metropolis”: The Chinatown in the United States and Europe	1
RUTH MAYER
1 New York After Chinatown: Canal Street and the “New World Order”	26
JOHN KUO WEI TCHEN
2 “Chinese Quarters”: Maritime Labor, Chinese Migration, and Local Imagination in Rotterdam and Hamburg, 1900–1950	45
LARS AMENDA
3 Cosmopolitan Lifestyles and “Yellow Quarters”: Traces of Chinese Life in Germany, 1921–1941	62
DAGMAR YU-DEMBSKI
4 Rehabilitating Chinatown at Mid-Century: Chinese Americans, Race, and US Cultural Diplomacy	81
MARY TING YI LUI
5 “Curious Kisses”: The Chinatown Fantasies of Thomas Burke	101
ANNE WITCHARD
6 “The Greatest Novelty of the Age”: Fu-Manchu, Chinatown, and the Global City	116
RUTH MAYER

vi	Contents
7	The Donaldina Cameron Myth and the Rescue of America, 1910–2002	135
	KIRSTEN TWELBECK
8	“Showing what it is to be Chinese”: China/Town Authenticity and Hybridity in Pearl S. Buck’s Kinfolk	163
	VANESSA KÜNNEMANN
9	“Food Town”: Chinatown and the American Journey of Chinese Food	182
	YONG CHEN
10	London’s Chinatown and the Changing Shape of Chinese Diaspora	198
	ROSEMARY SALES, WITH PANOS HATZIPROKOPIOU, ALESSIO D’ANGELO, AND XIA LIN
11	Chinatowns in Transition: Between Ethnic Enclave and Global Emblem	217
	FLEMMING CHRISTIANSEN
	Contributors	233
	Index	237