

Table of Contents

1. Introduction	1
2. Narrative and the Visual Arts:
The Forms and Functions of Intermediality	15
2.1 The Fusion of Media – Theoretical Implications of Intermediality	15
2.2 The Visual Arts in Narrative Fiction	26
2.2.1 The Integration of Visual Elements	28
2.2.2 Ekphrasis of Real and Fictional Art Works	36
2.2.3 Aesthetic Debates among Characters	43
2.3 Key Theoretical Debates Frequently Broached in Literature	46
3. A Model Reading: Art Discourses
in Oscar Wilde's The Picture of Dorian Gray	56
4. Forms and Functions of Representing the Visual Arts
in Narrative, or: Why Art Matters in Literature	72
4.1 Functions of the Visual Arts within the Story	76
4.1.1 Art as Economic Necessity or Investment	76
4.1.2 Art as Status Symbol or Hidden Treasure	80
4.1.3 Art as Consolation and Comfort	99
4.1.4 Art as a Source of Identity Formation	106
4.2 The 'In-between': Visual Art Discourses as Metareferential
or Poetological Commentary	126
4.3 Functions of the Visual Arts On and Beyond the Discourse Level	137
4.3.1 Art as a Structuring Principle	137
4.3.2 Art as Cultural Diagnosis	149
5. Conclusion	163
6. Works Cited	166