

Table of Contents

Preliminary Remarks: How to Use This Book	6
Abbreviations and Symbols	10
1 What Is a Language? What is Language? (The Field of Semiotics)	11
2 What Does a Word Do? (The Field of Lexicology)	28
3 What Makes Sounds Differ From Noise? (The Field of Phonology)	59
4 Why Do We Need Grammar? (The Field of Morphology and Syntax)	86
5 How Do We Build and Understand Texts? (The Field of Pragmatics and Text Linguistics)	116
6 How Can and Do We Communicate Without Sound? (The Field of Non-Verbal Communication)	140
7 How Do We Acquire or Learn Language? Why Do We Lose It? (The Field of Psycholinguistics)	153
8 Why Does My Neighbor Not Talk Like Me? Part 1 (The Fields of Sociolinguistics and the Sociology of Languages )	165
9 Why Does My Neighbor Not Talk Like Me? Part 2 (The Field of Historical Linguistics)	185
10 How and Why Has Linguistics Been Changing? (The History of Linguistics)	213
11 Special Summary: A Eurolinguistic Core Knowledge	230
Index of Names	244
Index of Technical Terms	245